I just nodded no and didn't say anything. For whatever reason I remember my dad leaving his hand on my crotch and could suddenly feel how warm and big his hand felt. I remember holding my breath wondering what he was doing, but then after a few seconds he actually squeezed my dick in the palm of his hand. He did this several times before removing it.

I remember us both looking down at my little boy cock that was now sticking straight up in my shorts.

My dad didn't say a thing, just looked at me, then looked back down at my dick and placed his hand back on my shorts.

He slowly began to massage it back and forth and I remember how good it felt and how excited I was. I knew we were doing something 'bad' which made it all the more exciting. I really couldn't believe he was doing this.

He kept squeezing my dick for what seemed like forever, then in one quick move reached his hand underneath the waist band of my shorts and grabbed dick with his fingers. I remember hearing him breath real deep when he did that and the feeling was INCREDIBLE. He grabbed my little boy dick head between his fingers and slowly felt up the length of my cock. He did it really slow like he was trying to remember what it felt like. I could tell he was getting excited too because he was breathing really deep. That's when he rolled over on his side to face me and then took his hand and pulled the waistband of my shorts down until my kid dick popped straight up. I remember it wasn't any bigger than 2 inches and the head was shinny.

I remember my dad sucking in his breath again and mumbling something. I think he said, "damn it's hard" or something like that.

He then went back and slowly grabbed my dick between his large fingers and began stroking it back and forth. I remember him whispering for me to 'just lay back and close my eyes.'

I did as he said feeling the incredible pressure in my cock head and shaft as he jacked me. I still couldn't believe this was happening and didn't want it to stop. I remember he then went down and gently cupped my nuts.

"Nice" he said. I do remember that. I was praying he'd go back to jacking my dick which he did.

Then I remember sitting up and opening my eyes. I remember seeing that the front of his jockey shorts were stuck straight out. His dick was hard as a rock. I was mesmerized. I remember looking up at him. He was grinning and he had a sexual look in his eyes.

Everything from that point seemed to happened in slow motion. Without saying a word, he reached down, pulled back the waistband of his shorts and showed me his hard cock for the first time. It sprang up and slapped up against the trail of dark hair on his stomach.

It was fucking incredible. I still remember the large lemon shaped head and the way these veins stuck out along the shaft. Most of all I remember looking down into his shorts and seeing all this dark brown hair. There was so much of it.

My dad was just sitting there watching me. I was too scared to move. I remember him telling me to touch it, but I couldn't. I just couldn't do anything. That's when he took my hand and placed it on his dick. I felt a bolt of electricity shoot through me when he did that. His dick was hot and hard and rubbery and unlike anything I could have imagined.

I remember him wrapping his large hand around mine and slowly using my little hand to jack himself off with. I remember him laying back in the bed and then motioning me to sit up and come closer to his side where I could get a better look.

At that angle, his dick looked longer than ever. I guess it was around 7 inches and he was uncut which I didn't know then.

Anyway, he took my hand and placed it back on his dick. I remember just grabbing it in my fist and slowly squeezing it not knowing what I was doing. I remember my dad closing his eyes and moaning really soft. He didn't say anything.

I remember him spreading his hairy legs and seeing his big ass balls. They were so hairy and I actually thought they were kinda gross at the time.

Then he took his hand and placed it around mine again and slowly started to stroke himself off. I remember him starting to breath really hard and moaning to himself. I still couldn't believe I was playing with my own dad's dick. Suddenly he lifted up his legs and held my hand really tight. I felt his dick pulse and suddenly he started shooting all over his hairy chest. He shot so hard, the first few spurts landed on his chin and neck. I remember him moving his legs back and forth and feeling some of his cum land on my bare legs and arm. I was surprised and excited and scared all at the same time.

Then my dad finally relaxed and let my hand go. It had cum on it and I remember lifting it to my nose and smelling it. It smelled funny and I remember my dad watching my expression as I did it. He then smiled and reached down and grabbed my little dick which was still hard as a rock. He jacked it a few times and just shook his head. I could tell he was turned on by me, but didn't know how to say it. He also looked ashamed and guilty at the same time and I remember he quickly got up, went to the bathroom and grabbed a towel.

I remember his dick bobbing in front of him as he walked and the cum dripping off the head. It was fucking hot looking back and I wish it had happened more often. Unfortunately it didn't.

My mom and dad reconciled a few months later and got back together. After that nothing else happened like it even though to this day I still fantasize that I'd gotten to do more with him. Just wishing I knew what I know now!

This is a true story of the first time my dad and I had sex. If you get off on it good. Since I've read so many stories on the net about first time encounters, I knew that sooner or later I would want to share mine. It's not a 'big' deal and unlike the experiences I've read on the net, mine seems to be pretty insignificant, but I thought it might be hot for some guys out there who are into incest and dad/son sex. So here it goes.

Starting when I was 5 I always had trouble with wetting the bed - every other night. So much so that my parents decided to take me to a doctor to see if there was something wrong with me. There wasn't of course, I just had an under developed bladder. I was the youngest of 3 kids and the most mischievous. My dad was a chemical engineer for a shampoo company and starting when I was 5 I would often sleep in his bed. My older brother was in college and my sister Jill was almost 16 and gone all the time. My mom worked as a sitter for people with disabilities, so she was often gone on the week nights. I guess my dad was lonely because he never minded me getting in bed with him -even if it was late and he was already asleep.

Due to my bed wetting problem, I would wake up several times a night which never seemed to bother my dad because he was a sound sleeper. Anyway, around this time I remember always waking with a little kid erection. Every morning my dad would roll over, lift up the covers and pat my crotch area to see if I'd wet myself the night before. I never thought anything of it and it definitely wasn't sexual. If I had peed in the bed, the first thing we would do is take off the sheets and bring them downstairs to the washer. My mom HATED it when I slept in their bed because of that reason, but my dad never told her when I did and he didn't seem to care if I had an accident.

It was around this same time that they started having a lot of problems in the marriage and when I turned 6, they got a legal separation. My mom moved in with her parents and me and Jill got to stay with my dad for the time being. During this time he seemed pretty depressed and I remember him drinking a lot more. Even so, he still let me sleep with him, especially now that mom was gone.

I remember waking up in the morning with my little piss hard-on and as usual my dad would wake up, roll over and place his hand over my little dick. He sometimes would make jokes about my 'little pup tent' which I always dismissed.

I don't know when it started to change really, but I remember seeing him get out of bed with his own piss hard on poking out the front of his shorts. I never got to ask him about it and he never seemed embarrassed or shy around me and I liked it that way. But the more I saw him, the more fascinated I became. I was fascinated by all of him. By his long hairy legs, by the hair on his chest and by the large erection in his shorts. Sometimes it was almost like he was parading in front of me to see what I would do and I became really curious and remember wanting to see more.

I remember the time everything changed. I guess a lot of guys would think what happened was sick, but to this day it remains one of the hottest things that's every happened to me. I was still only 6 though.

I'd woke up to hear my dad's alarm clock going off. It was a high pitched buzzing sound that I hated, but that morning he turned it off rather quickly.

I remember laying next to him and feeling my little dick spring a boner. My dad then sat up in the bed, pulled back the covers and placed his hand on my groin.

"You wet?" He asked me not looking down.

I just nodded no and didn't say anything. For whatever reason I remember my dad leaving his hand on my crotch and could suddenly feel how warm and big his hand felt. I remember holding my breath wondering what he was doing, but then after a few seconds he actually squeezed my dick in the palm of his hand. He did this several times before removing it.

You really are a loathesome piece of shit, you know that? Everything on "Teh Way Of Teh Kook" had been decreed as ko0kery years before the thread that spawned that page began, and had been quite simply because such behaviour is childish, cowardly (as in your case), pathetic, melodramatic, attention-seeking-for-its-own-sake, clueless, looney, and generally k0oky. Mature adults don't do those things, online or off-, and you are decidedly immature adults. Or, k00ks.

Then, of course, consider that the x-poasting of the threads outing Ward Hardman /began/ in rmcr, and no one forced you guys to x-poast here. Now that you _are_ x-poasting to AUK, however, we(tinw) are highly inclined to return the favour for the next decade or so, perhaps longer, because it seems your group is a motherlode of k00ks, meaning we(tinw) are interested in it. You might have considered investigating before x-poasting here, honestly -- we(tinw) won't stop.

> By the way, Wardy has this fascinating new theory called 'indirect

> Wardy's way of 'explaining' how you and I are the same person.
> Bahahahahaa.

We can get into that next month. This month, you are the stars of our show, the main event, and right now, the only game in town. That's correct, you stand alone as joint candidates for Kook of the Month. Do you feel proud? I may make a joint nom for CotM, later, as well, unless I'm beaten to the punch. Possibly CNotM, too, since you seem unaware that you've gone way over the line in violating netiquette, right out into LARTing territory.

> Anyway, enjoy the weekend. Wardy's mommy won't let him on the computer > much so we can enjoy the next couple of fairly Ward 'ignore-ant' Hardman

I think you lot in rmcr fail to appreciate Ward, I do. A few limericks are no big fucking deal, except to small children who are the targets for them, and adults who think like small children. However, even if he had been genuinely abusive, you would still have no excuse for your own actions, Outer Filth. Anyway.

I for one am tired of sifting through the fucking garbage... You can't kill-file the junk posters because they keep changing their nicks/bogus email accounts. The only way to do it to STOP FUCKING REPLYING SO THEY GO AWAY!

It's too bad I'm going to have to start filtering the "legit" posters because of their own stupidity... That's going to be the only way to get rid of the shit ounce and for all.

What a sad excuse for a newsgroup... And the blame falls on the majority of the "legit" posters, because they always have to have the last word in. Don't believe me? Watch how many replies this posting gets; it will prove my statement is true, without me lifting another finger...

LMAO! You've done nothing about it for a year and longer, you're not you are _never_ going to do anything about it, ever, Mousy, because you are completely k00kpotent. You are utterly beyond all hope, you have no

Whatever, little fag. Sooner or later you will uncloak one way or the other. And I get up to NY quite often. I suspect some day you will get to tell me what you think face to face. I am going to enjoy that day. See you soon, little dick sucker. You might want to ask Santa to make your boyfriend way bigger than you are.

Nobody is coming to your rescue, homosexual boy. I am only 4'11" and 93 lbs, and you won't even be man enough to meet in person, after spending at least 2 years stalking me. You sit at home, a queer shut-in, printing out my every post and every post anyone has ever made to me. You back up your backups on CD and DVD so you can keep my every post in your life. You spend hours reading them over and over. I know you want me to fuck you in the ass, but I just want to beat you into a coma, fruitloop. So, be a man and bring your stalking to the next level and stop boring Usenet with your stalkings. You don't have to post your address here for the world to see, just send me an e-mail with your address/phone and I will make sure I clear some time when next in NY to meet you. Come on bitch, you know you want to be a man for the first time in your life.

Missing the damn thing once and deliberately x-poasting it repeatedly are two very different things, stalker-enabling Outer Filth. Even if it really is Ward, you still have no business posting personal info to usenet, and especially not x-poasting it in the subject lines of various threads. That sort of tactic is the property of the coward who's lost a flamewar to his enemy, and has no other recourse than to go "real-life" on said enemy. You claim there was no such flamewar. Therefore, you don't even have that as an excuse -- you're just a scumbag Outer Filth with a grudge against someone for behaviour you didn't like.

> As for your depressed claque of acne-scarred troglodytes, WHO CARES?

You should. Oh, very much. See, our(tino) upper range of ages is somewhere in the 50s or 60s, and the lowest in the 20s (I think). I'm 37, for that matter. We(tinw) are quite capable of carrying on with x-poasting to rmcr for /years/, simply because the wealth of k00ks about which you have already bragged as being among its regulars is exceedingly interesting to us(tinu). All k00ks are interesting to us(tinu). Honestly, I have to thank you for bringing your group to our(tino) attention, because it wouldn't have occurred to me to look there, and I very much doubt any other kookologists or kook-hunters would have considered it.

> Jesus, you little morons take yourselves so seriously!

No, we(tinw) take behaviour like yours seriously. Outing a poster's alleged personal info is one of the scuzziest, kookiest, most disgusting things anyone can do on usenet, and the fact that you don't see the problem makes you that much kookier, scuzzier, and more disgusting.

> Get lives. Better yet, get deaths and improve the gene pool, not that > anyone would want to mix with you genetically or otherwise.

Crackhead.

> Speaking of which, how exactly do you go about enforcing your dictums? Not > gonna invite me to your parties? Boo hoo. I'm s-so s-scared.

(Once you have secured your KotM award) If you find you have a problem with k00ks, well, you can bring them to our attention, but you cannot validly vote or second (though you can earn yourself a Tinfoil Sombrero (and much laughter) by simply trying to "take over" the awards), and any nominations you may make must be seconded twice by kookologists (not just by other usenetters). Incidentally, of course you can attend our parties -- we'll always need floorshows.

> Have a nice time brooding about it in my killfile with your fellow > diseased Eris-worshipers. Plenty room for more.

Oh, I'm one of the very few actual Discordians in AUK. Most of 'em are atheists/agnostics, IIRC...Of course, given that Discordianism is an irreligion, I sort of qualify as an atheist/agnostic anyway.

Well, as unintentional comedy, anyway. Seeing Woger continue a campaign of harassment that went "real-life" years ago is hilarious...You just know he's gonna cross the line, sooner or later, and get himself arrested.

Here we were having a nice conversation about skin care and you have to post and bring the thread down in the gutter by using disgusting words like "pedophile" and "urinal". If I wanted to read such filfth, I'd buy one of those nasty pronography publications. Unless your comment is about hygiene, namely of the facial sort, I'm asking you to please stay

Negative VSWR was employed in an April issue of _QST_ years ago.

"Belmont Tech" has kind of run its course.
Nevertheless, I do like reading of old exploits involving cilmbing in and out of women's dorm windows at Notre Dame de Namur (which is in Belmont) while Sister Theresa nodded off in her chair in the lobby. Her fiercely wielded yardstick had sent many a male climber tumbling into the ivy below when he got his knuckles rapped on a window ledge.

Look up "balun" not "balum"

It's balanced to unbalanced, not balanced to umbalanced.

So then some of you are located in Florida I guess. I just got back from our yearly jaunt to Florida. Needless to say we had a great time.
I want to apply for a supervisor job there. I am also still waiting to hear something . Who knows, maybe out of the two something will give for me!

mikey had/has no rights to our pictures. Period. Parody protection on <even> prominent citizens is limited to humor. Not sexual harassment. Not picture thieving.

I impinge on pictures and music, and so far not as much as one person has objected.

I objected to mikey the first day, when he could have avoided the whole thing.
He told me to fuck off... Just wait.

Nono, I'm merely describing Woger Wiseman in the most accurate manner possible. You can recognise him by the homophobic nyms and the trolling of Mark Morgan and Lloyd Davies, among others.

Awwww, and it only took you since, what, last November to figure it all out, punk? I think Dean Humphries was the only other guy remaining on Good for you, Richie! You figured out all the nyms I've been using extensively since last year. Well, more or less. Anyway, take comfort in the hope that you were smarter than at least one other person on usenet (noted k00k and Outer Filth Dean Humphries, who thought I was Leola). You would be surprised...Well, okay, I killfiled Slow Code for awhile.

Also Kohout. Since the latter uses remailers, he's Galactically Killfiled, and thus disqualified from nominating, seconding, voting, or having

Isn't life a BITCH? Plus, the alleged multi-nym Google troll insists that he is, in fact, two different persons, and you sound like you might be another nym of the same k00k-torll, using better vocabulary. We(tinw) must investigate further, to see if the entire group is in favour of outing personal info, has "looked the other way" and given tacit passive support, or what.

No, he isn't, I checked. No Kook Awards for Chad Bryant (I think you are confusing his past association with John Henry, legendary kookologist, with his being a k00k himself). Plenty for Bowtie, though.

in point of fact their are 3-5 homophobes in the radio NGs they choose to appear by making nym after nym since they have been driven underground for the most part NONE of the Homphobes dare publish under

All Hail Discordia! TM#5; Flonk Leader 2 & 11-1/9
The Ridiculously Long Scarf of Tom Baker

1. What is this newsgroup, alt.usenet.kooks (AUK)?

A mass of electrons spread out upon bandwidth scattered across the globe for the express purpose of separating the wheat from the chaff of the net.

2. This is a joke, right? RIGHT?!!

No more a joke than the fact that ISPs let people on every day who have nothing better to do than annoy their neighbors enough to win by popular vote silly little awards created for just such buffoons as them.

3. What's this newsgroup for?

The newsgroup alt.usenet.kooks is for the discovery and discussion of Kooks on Usenet and the Internet. These people are known technically as net.kooks.

4. What's this newsgroup NOT for?

This group exists for recreational Kookology, not for Very Personal Vendetta. It is not to be used for general harassment of someone, or for net abuse such as spamming and flooding and cancelbombing in an attempt to gain vengeance on someone or get the denizens of AUK to shut up. Either way, it won't work, it's very messy, "Bob" will give you triple your money back, and you don't get a life.

Also, we [tinw] are not in the business of harassing the vulnerable or the insane. Occasionally an apparent net.kook proves to be genuinely ill. In such cases the person is disqualified from winning awards and other posters are asked to avoid exarcerbating his or her problems. Similarly, trolling or kook-hunting in support groups is strongly discouraged.

5. Who let this newsgroup in here, and why wasn't I notified?

That's what you get for hogging the Beer Fund.

(Here you can view the control message that started it all, from our Mighty Founder MAC.)

http://www.netcabal.com/auk/cmsg.html

6. Who is a net.kook?

If you post uniquely strange, preferably incomprehensible articles, or you manifest a persistent, extreme, and somewhat bizarre obsession, you just might be a net.kook. And more.

It is important to note the subtle distinction between a net.kook, a net.cretin, a clueless newbie, troll, or garden-variety @$$hole. The newbie, one hopes, can acquire a clue on the installment plan even if he can't afford to buy one for cash; the cretin is merely stupid and/or irritating; the troll makes a fool out of himself by making a fool out of you, the @$$hole is, well, simply that. But a TRUE net.kook has a special fascination derived from his/her/its utter ineffability. Their behavior is irrational, if not downright weird, but they are seldom merely boring.

It is not considered appropriate to nominate clueless newbies, trolls, or longwinded spambrains as net.kooks. It is acceptable to nominate net.cretins, or simply to present them, without nomination, for whatever minor amusement value they may have; but the real focus here is on net.kooks in all their raging, indomitable glory.

Important Disclaimer: the fact that someone has been proclaimed a net.kook does not imply any psychological diagnosis in and of itself. A net.kook may or may not be clinically insane; that is not the concern of the AUK audience.

We hope.

7. Can you show me a few examples?

I'd rather not, but it may help to clarify things... The person who posted a handful of meaningless, ill-formed newgroup messages on May 21, 1994 was a Clueless Newbie. The person who hung around alt.religion.kibology during April and May 1994, constantly posting boilerplate "warning" messages telling people that ARK messages were intentionally meaningless, was a net.cretin. The people who post demented "scientific" theories, like Archimedes Plutonium's concept of the universe being one giant atom of plutonium, and seem incorrigible to criticism, are moderate net.kooks. The sort of being who constantly raves about the conspiracy against her/him/it is an extreme net.kook, especially if he/she/it automatically assumes that anyone who questions their world-view is an agent of the conspirators or is an ultra right-wing/left-wing extremist, and hides behind an anonymous remailer to avoid "persecution" even though they would get one hell of a lot less of it by not posting at all.

8. How do I present a Kook on this group?

The preferred technique is to get the suspected Kook to start posting to AUK so that we can all see him/her/it in all their first-hand Glory. You can do this by posting followups to the suspect's weirder messages, with your followups nonchalantly crossposted to AUK. If the suspect responds to your messages without editing the Newsgroups line, you've achieved your goal.

Another acceptable method is to repost, complete and unedited, one or two of the suspected Kook's recent rants. If you do this, please provide a brief intro in the header describing what the hell you're doing, such as indicating who this person is, what group you found the message on, or why you think the rest of us should give a rat's @$$ about it.

You should be aware that if you try this with some perfectly reasonable posting, you may be flamed to net.hell and back and probably suspected of being a net.loon yourself. It is also considered extremely lame to nominate someone as a Kook simply because you have lost, or at least failed to win, a debate with them; persistently doing so is likely to get you nominated for Kook Awards. That someone fails to perceive the self-evident, unassailable wisdom of your viewpoint does not, in and of itself, constitute Kookery.

9. What are the Kook Awards?

The newsgroup alt.usenet.kooks offers a variety of widely-recognized and highly dubious honors for your service, applying to net.kooks everywhere. They recognize several kinds and many levels of net.kookery.

10. Who the FSCK appointed YOU net.kookologist/god/nazi etc.

Nobody. We have a Gift.

11. Are there any holidays in AUK?

Why yes, there sure are:

March 30th - CALL to ARMMs

June 26th - KOOKS DAY

Named in commemoration of Earl Curley checking into the Motel Deep 6 to serve a major in the pine penalty box, the same date as Edmond Wollmann got arrested riding the San Clemente railway...on his motorcycle.

August 15th - DEAD DOC TAVISH DAY

Named in honor of the death of one of Usenet's most famed identities due to excessive Usenet exposure; his virtual corpse is buried in a rural cemetery near New Bremen, Texas

September 10th - KAZOO DAY

This holiday commemorates Raymond Ronald "Kazoo" Karczewski's conviction for seven felonies. May Raymold be a warning to all kooks who are tempted to think that a "Sovereign Christ" is above the law.

December 20th - AUK BIRTHDAY

The anniversary of the newgrouping of alt.usenet.kooks

12. What should I do if I'm paged on the Red Courtesy Telephone?

Give the caller Gandalf the Gray's speech to the demon. Verbatim.

13. Is alt.usenet.kooks archived anywhere?

Why would you even want to know? [But if you truly must know, GIYF. You masochist, you.]

14. What should we do about the book?

Burn it.

15. Where can I find out more about net.kooks?

Several mini-FAQs on classic kooks of the past and present (along with several non-kooky legendary netters) are available on the World Wide Web in various archives. Be sure to set aside coffee and cats before reading. [Try insurgent.org/kook-faq/]

16. What are the AUK Offices?

As well as the kook awards, kooks may compete to hold office for a month or longer. Nominations are made in exactly the same way as for awards; the difference is that the previous holder of the office always appears on the ballot paper when a new candidate emerges, and the winner remains in office until challenged again. At present, the offices are as follows.

Darth Bawl -

This office is held by Usenet's biggest crybaby.

Village Idiot -

The name says it all.

Kooki Information Minister -

Named in honour of Iraq's Mohammed Saeed al-Sahhaf, this office is held by the kook whose claims are most noticeably at variance with known facts.

Ministry of Circle Jerks -

Although many kooks are lone wolves, a few like to make friends with those who are as delusional as themselves. This office rewards the slurpfests that often ensue.

17. Are there any net.kook awards outside of AUK?

At various points of time there have been several, from the Christian groups' Steebie Award to alt.fan.art-bell's Angstrom Medal. At least two newsgroups, talk.politics.guns and comp.systems.mac.advocacy, have given out their own Kook of the Month awards. Check around from time to time to see what other net.kook awards might be around. [alt.atheism does them, too.]

18. What is the Cabal?

From the beginning of Usenet time, there has been but one force capable of holding it in check to remain in the realm of mortal existence. For today's Usenet world you need a Giant. A Behemoth. A Cabal of IMMENSE

PROPORTIONS. A REALLY BIG CABAL to offer all news ORDER.

Within this force is the most ruthless and efficient organization on all Usenet, known as the Cabal Obsidian Order (COO). If YOU wish to know of this entity, read, learn, and do as you will.

SEE THE LIGHT OF COLLECTIVE WISDOM!!!

A. I SAID, what is the CABAL?

There Is No Cabal. Long Live The Cabal.

B. How does the Cabal function??

As well as any apocryphal organization can hope to function.

C. What are the weaknesses of the Cabal?

<chortle> What weaknesses?

D. What is the hierarchy and power structure of the Cabal?

Oh, you don't need to know that. Really. You can trust us, especially when it comes to information you haven't paid for.

E. What is the Cabal Obsidian Order?

The Cabal Obsidian Order (COO) is a profoundly secret collective of operatives designed to outrun, outgun and Eliminate the most vile scum and villainy the net has to offer.

F. How do I know if the COO is responsible for something?

If the COO's operatives are doing their job correctly, they'll be laughing at whoever is actually responsible.

G. Who are the leaders of the COO?

Leaders? Where we function we don't need Leaders.

H. What is the Beer Fund?

The more you contribute to it, the more we will tell you.

I. How may I apply to become an operative of the COO?

19. Who is the FNVW?

Why, our highly esteemed Friendly Neighbourhood Vote Wrangler (FNVW), whose benevolent supreme dictatorship runs the electoral wheels of our great realm. Seven fearless folk have served, with distinction:

AUK VOTE WRANGLERS

Craig Dickson (1994-1995)
Matthew Legare (1995-1997)
Killfile Daemons (1997)
Robbie Honerkamp (1997-1998)
Phoenix (1997-2004)
Peter J Ross (2004-2006)
Sean Monaghan (2006-Present)

On retirement, Phoenix accepted the high office of Friendly Neighborhood "Bob"father.

20. Do I have what it takes to BE a Vote Wrangler?

<chortle> If you have to ask, you don't have what it takes.

21. Who do you %$#@!s think you are to oppose ME, Lord High Poster-Child of the Macrocosmic Universe?

We are the ones who can and will humiliate your @$$ if you use our group as your personal piss bowl. You are a freak of the universe. You do not give the orders here. And whether you like it or not, the universe is laughing behind your back.

22. That was MEAN, just plain MEAN!!!

Payback's a bitch, ain't it?

23. Should I expect ONE CONSISTENT response to my rude and obnoxious online behavior from the denizens of AUK?

Absolutely NOT.

24. To whom should I complain if I think I have been treated unfairly?

<Darth Vader>
You think you have been treated unfairly? </Darth Vader>

25. What kind of response can I expect as a result of my stupid online behavior at AUK?

Guilty party receives one or a combination thereof of the following assorted reactions (not at all limited to these, mind you):

1. Complete silence while we blow you off
2. Complete silence while we reload
3. Complete silence while we pull the plug on your account
4. Complete silence while we sleep at the switch
5. Complete silence while we sleep in our beds
6. Complete silence while we laugh behind your back
7. Complete silence while we wipe the splattered food and/or drinks off our screens
8. Complete silence while we contemplate the known macrocosmic universe
9. Complete silence while the Vote Wrangler pays good money to watch professional Denver teams find new ways to lose
10. Complete silence while we bask in the pure glow of our obnoxiously self-righteous selves

11. Complete silence while we play high-stakes poker with Snoopy, Spike, Andy, Olaf, Marbles and Woodstock
12. Complete silence while we never notice your NoCeM'd post
13. Complete silence while we never notice your spam-canceled post
14. Complete silence while we run your rude and obnoxious posts through goofyizers for reposting
15. Complete silence while the Trekkies among us watch the USS Defiant blast bad guys' ships into rubble and fly through the debris with that nice halo of sparks effect
16. Complete silence while we wait for our Gates-sponsored software systems to uncrash themselves
17. General laughter at your expense
18. General laughter and pointing at your expense
19. General laughter, pointing and personal insults at your expense
20. Someone exposes your true service provider to the Rabble
21. Someone does any of 1-20 and reports you to your state's Attorney General
22. Someone does any of 1-21 and reports you to the FBI National Computer Crime Squad (nccs@fbi.gov)
23. Someone does any of 1-22 and does highly amusing parodies of you during the entire process
24. Talk amongst ourselves about life, love and why they sell 8-hot-dog weenie sets with 10-bun packages
25. Sounds of awe as we wonder with dropped mouths how you were able to make a greater fool of yourself than you already had
26. Sounds of astonishment as we MARVEL at the FREAK
27. Flames in your generally specific direction
28. Flames of you in the third, fourth and fifth person
29. Flames from the Vote Wrangler from the other side of the Galactic Killfile just to annoy all hell out of you
30. Nominations for many noteworthy Kook awards

26. Can I really be kicked off my ISP for...

Being a total @$$hole?

If you try hard enough.

Top-posting like the pathetic imbecile that I am?

Usually not, but we can always try.

Forging someone else's valid e-mail address?

Absolutely.

Posting multiple copies of the same message to individual news groups (Excessive Multi Posting [EMP])?

Of course. It's the SPAMMING, stupid.

27. Can I really be thrown in jail for posting threatening messages?

Yes. People have been tried and convicted for sending threatening or harassing Email or Usenet posts. We do NOT support censorship of the Internet; however, posting a message stating you are going to cause virtual or unvirtual harm to someone will probably gain you a visit from your Friendly Neighborhood FBI Agent.

28. Fine. I'll just remain anonymous. That'll work, right?

BWWAAAAAAAAA HA HA HA HA HA HA HA HA!!!!!!!!!!!!!!

Try it, pinkboy. An anon remailer service can be forced to turn you in for copyright violation, harassment, stalking; you name the crime - they've got the time. If you ran an anon remailer service what would be the point of protecting flagrant abusers of the net and the Law??

29. Okay, then I'll bust your #$%&$*!! @$$ off AUK instead!

Uh... yeah. Many denizens of AUK are abuse admins, know abuse admins, sleep with abuse admins, or otherwise have years of experience dealing with and educating others about precisely your kind of dubiosity. A good account is a terrible thing to waste, so don't sacrifice yours on our altar.

30. I just realized I am a Maroon. How can I improve my standing in the eyes of the Internet, my balloon doll, and, most importantly, "Bob"?

REPENT. The End is always near.

I don't get what was supposed to be funny. She had an unusual many bladed knife on her head that caused her to scrape some hair off her head. Unless she wanted to look like Sinead Oconnor, I call that a knife wound. Is the special knife called a flonk? You've confused me.

Also thought you would like knowing that my Prayers are with her in

Now there you go again, k00k. You don't talk back to your betters, you instead find some railroad tracks, lie down on them, and wait, just like a

You seem to be under the impression that you have something to say to an adult, k00k. Your reputation as an ultra-lame crazy was established last year, when you made up the persona of Fly Cooter and then came out as him in December. There is no such person as "Randy Perkoff", you made him up just like you made up Rasta Khan and the others. Now, fuck off, Bowtie.

I think the time has come to acknowledge that Mr. WH is a prime candidate for the various kook awards. Therefore, I suggest you and the other Hardman-antagonists start cross-posting everything to alt.usenet.kooks and see if y'all can bring in some other Jim Smith dopplegangers to join the fun.

Well, you've got our(tino) attention NOW! Possibly not _quite_ what you had in mind, but hey -- life's a bitch.

No, you don't get to say that now, John. You asked for this, and now you have it. You brought this down on your own head. You should have done your research before you started your little campaign of terror and intimidation, Johnny, because now you've accomplished the exact opposite of what you wanted. You are our(tino) focus, not Ward (which is a pity, because I'm a firm lefty, and Canadian). You are Outer Filth, and there is no excuse for it, no way to escape it, no defense for it -- goatse is less disgusting than you. For that matter, so is tubgirl.

Posting personal contact info to usenet is nothing less than the act of a terrorist. You do it in the hope of making your opponent shut up and stop saying nasty things to or about you, and that makes it cowardice, as well as terrorism. You have no justification for your actions, John, and using an unacknowledged sockpuppet doesn't change anything. You are simply lowlife scum, no better than a crack dealer selling to schoolchildren, or a pimp with a string of underage girls.

I haven't seen much in the way of protests/denunciations of what you've been doing or anything like a x-posted disownership of your outing, so I can only assume they are either too timid and terrified, or indifferent, or quietly support you, and the best-case scenario (for them) is the first. Whatever the case, you are clearly one of the group's bullies, and as such, yes I am superior to you. I'm not a bully. I don't out personal info in subject lines to intimidate and harass, and you do. That makes practically everyone on the planet who isn't a terrorist, crack dealer to children, pimp of underage kids, GOP politician, or Outer Filth better than you, including Ward Hardman. You really do have your head up your arse.

Your whole flamewar has been about his sexuality, thanks to your resident homophobes. Mark is merely trying to point out that said 'phobes are the ones who've destroyed your group, RRAP. As for me, I'm helping the AUK Friendly Neighbourhood Vote Wrangler and PJR, the one who nominated Mark for the GK, establish whether that nom should be expanded to include an entire group or not. Since both RRAP and RRCB seem to be involved, this may be a more difficult conundrum than previously believed -- Woger's contributions, of course, haven't helped make it easier.

Nice trick with the word "homophile", there. That word went out of vogue decades ago, yet here you are, acting like it's the '50s. Gee, is there any chance you might be a conservative? You're only trying to turn back the clock...Hmmm, you wouldn't happen to have any little secrets

I foresee a wealth of Kook Awards in the rec.radio.* groups, as well as I got this link from a classical music fan that I met on the CB radio board.

He said it would probably be popular with Cowboys and Eagles fans:

First, I don't need your jail house legalese so I snipped it and would appreciate you not responding to my posts with it.
Secondly, I have read a lot about YOU! You crap is all over the net, do search of your own posts, your a nutjob. So much so that the net.kooks have a site dedicated to you. So your post are most certainly questionable at best.
Third, I have sat here watching you cyberharrass Steveo to no end and he isn't even pissed at you judging from his posts as compared to the Dogie incident.
Do us on RRCB and take it somewhere else, I for one am growing bored with your incessant whining.
I'm crossposting this to alt.kook as I think you should have a nomination, as I believe you have a shot at beating Mark Morgan and Lloyd Davees.

LMFAO! I can't wait for the votes to come in, considering the amount of net.kooks from RRCB and RRAP that have excellent chances of winning.

Have you compared it with other D&A amp schematics? Maybe similar enough to figure it out. Then again it may be an amp that is just using the D&A name.

Hello DR. Death:

All I know is that it is a rare D&A Amp, that uses a separate power supply box, and then a separate amplifier box. I will guess it uses a bunch of the 6LQ6 / 6JE6C Sweep Tubes. Yeah probably a good call as being close to other D&A Amps.

Because you're an obsessive kook homosexual stalker who is in love with me and angry that I won't return the feelings. Well, that and you're just a dickhead kook who needs some serious medication and therapy.

Used to be it was hard to tell who was the bigger kook -- you, or John.
Given your behavior in recent weeks (months?) (years?) I'd say it has to be you. Though John is a close second.

I don't know the Biz's score as he has never openly discussed it. Though
I hope he gets the job

I know that all 120 will be chosen immediately

120 is a large class so they may divide them up for training to make them manageable,
but as far as I know this will be one class

I think I have nearly the same score, though.

so his score cannot be that low

Take off your blinders. The parts you missed were:
1) I was not even doing much on Usenet until Steveo wrote me via email and accused me of harassing him on usenet. He said he was going to "get even", even though I had done nothing. When I told him it was not me, he ignored that; as he didn't believe me.
2) Outside of RRC, Steveo immediately started a campaign of slandering; using the name of my late wife and present wife in his headers; also including words like "kike", "hooknose", and "faggot" in the headers. Would you like to see those, DrDeath the Steveo apologist?
3) Steveo starts posting addresses and phone numbers of people he believes might be me. To my knowledge he posted at least 3 so far; but it might be more. I can google it if you really don't believe that.
4) Steveo starts writing threatening letters to my personal email; and continues after I tell him to stop writing. I have those.
5) Steveo starts misusing pictures of me. That is the most petty of the issues, but still illegal.
6) Steveo contacts my ex employer. That employer was in California; so that is an interstate issue.

geez , get him to a specialist.

this is getting weirder and weirder and weirder.

my friend had a seizure when she first got pregnant and it was because when you get pregnant, the blood volume increases and she had this stupid little birthmark on the inside of her skull, just a little strawberry birthmark, and when the blood increased, it caused a seizure.

tho they never would have figured that out if she didn't go to a really good neurology lab

finally had it excised and got the whole thing under control.

seizures don't just happen for no cause.

it could be toxin, neurology, anything....

my empire is confusing.

it's a hard job that i can't learn overnight.,

i guess i am making adjustments but am impatient at the learning curve.

tell me about the changed regimen

you are both gods are among mortals, what with the apotheosis thing youse guys do

I imagine it's an RF ANL. Something inside the radio rather than something on the speaker side.

Well, you can _say_ it, sure, but it doesn't mean anything. You post from /Google/, you twit. That isn't a newsreader, it's a search engine. No killfile. No plonker. Even your Harrington nym doesn't use one...Mind, we(tinw) have a fun little thread going where Art Deco, ah, and I say "plonk" to each other, mocking Classic Tholenator (you know him, in rmc). Of course, you probably know about that thread, too.

Was there some reason you felt a need to post this twice?

Again, maniacal laughter noted.

The word is "bi", 'phobe. No more than the average Outer Filth who does his outing in subject lines, really. It's too bad we share much the same politics, aside from your attitude towards personal info being posted to usenet (the personal is political, after all). I think your President is scum, too.

Mark, Just ignore them.

They only tease you because of the stupid things you say when you follow up. Just ignore them and they'll give up.

Stop giving them reasons to tease you. It only makes you look more stupid.

Take a break from the radio groups for a while, Maybe work on your moon bounce some more.

That freak is toasted now. He's thrown in the towel again.

Once the SAP cocksucker from Atlanta (Scott Gilbert) starts whining about how he is going to sue people, it's all downhill from there for that light in the loafers gutter snipe.

He does that -everytime- he gets his ass handed to him, it's well documented in his kOOk site.

C'mon Gilbert, sue me you bone smoking sissy shitstain, I double dog dare ya.

What, do I have to explain myself to you k00ks individually? _You_ don't

CB is so 70's, 80's, 90's..what's next 20's? :)

Scott Gilbert has many kook miles on his odometer, he's still imagines he's rolling down the eastern seaboard with no radio. 10-4

Kewl!

Due to the fact that Cletis Perkins appears to be typical of the newsgroup rec.radio.amateur.policy's membership (apart from the ones who are simply boring), I do hereby retract my nomination of him and re-submit it for the entire group. However, he can keep his noms for teh Bratlo (seconded by Bob Officer), the GAB, the Kaczynski, and the Bullis, as they all apply to him more than RRAP.

Judging by the regs in rrcb, absolutely!

K00ky Outer Filth and their enablers don't get to complain about spam, because they're scumbag terrorists. You deserve to have your home fire-bombed and your place of work taken out with several missile attacks. You have no redeeming qualities worthy of mention. If you have any living family members or other relatives, I hope they all disown you. May you all (in rmcr) die of syphilis. If you don't want to wade through an ocean of OT posts, I suggest you abandon rmcr.

Poor Davey, his lameness shows why he was relegated to the press releases after his rear echelon stint in 'nam. Too bad he didn't inherit his pedo father's news writing abilities, feeble as they were.

A mysterious extraterrestrial ball of light discovered in Ireland

Hello,

I apologize for disturbing you in your private mailbox. I belong to a team of people who made an unbelievable discovery. Today we want to spread this knowledge as far as possible because what we discovered is a very important concern for everybody. We would like to talk personally to everybody but unfortunately it is impossible. Internet is the only way we can use to come in touch with many people and share our discovery. Please take a few minutes to read the text below and if it doesn't interest you, simply ignore it. If you want to go a little bit further, feel free to do it. The only thing we ask is respect and no aggression.

This is neither commercial action, nor a gag or a trap. It is only a sincere wish to share an information that concerns and can give a new start to everybody.

Thank you for your time and reading.
Sincerely,
Arecibo

Source information : http://t/helightb/all.fu/npic/.de

A team of 5 experts discovered in Ireland an old celtic site old of many thousands years. It has stayed untouched for one thousand five hundreds years. On this site the team, an archeologist, a computer expert, an expert of old languages, an architect and a biologist discover a black chest made in ebony wood. This box is obviously not celtic.

After days of studies to open this chest without damaging anything, they discover at last what is inside. To their utmost surprise, they see a ball of light which is floating in the middle of the chest. After days of work on this lightball to understand what it could be, the linguist guy pushed by impatience and inattention touches this famous ball. He feels no pain, but the ball will stop at once its radiance, leaving a kind of very small flying saucer. This one seems to be a very highly sophisticated hard disc. Its origin is obviously extraterrestrial. Months of studies will be needed to be able to produce something from this extraterrestrial technology. At last the computer expert will produce a kind of text printed directly as pictures from this hard disc. These texts are written mainly in Runes mixed with points and other signs. Those other signs and drawings were completely unknown. Years will be needed by the whole team to be able to translate these strange extraterrestrial texts.

Its contents is really fabulous and even more incredible is the fact that the texts were stocked in this hard disc until the precise second where it was touched by the language expert. The knowledge brought in these texts is so revolutionary for humanity that it means a complete change in our way to understand our past but mainly to deal with our very near future. Once more years will be needed for the team to integrate such extraterrestrial ideas. The results of such a way will be a complete liberation of the psychology and even little by little an integration of psychic powers. The teaching of the disc invites mankind to step into the consciousness needed to belong to the cosmic brotherhood, among the other races who know and see each other so often. This today should be humanity's place and we must learn to get it. All the explanations about a huge cosmic war were also given in the texts. The cultural and psychological knowledge given through these means are no contest, but the biggest event of our civili

A team of people more or less close to the team of scientists have decided to witness what they learnt through the team of scientists. The changes brought by these teachings are incredibly powerful and if you start this so astonishing experience, your life will be completely different in the future. It's not here a simple cultural experience but a real revolution in your life. You'll have to be strong and open-minded to digest these fabulous explanations. All this is powerful enough to change completely the destiny of mankind. We try through this posting to gather a maximum of people. Most of the population is afraid of such a discovery and we know it's very hard to find enough people to exchange about such a subject. That's the reason why we contact you directly by mail : we could gather the whole team of witnesses on one forum which is in fact not a real forum because there is only one thread. Our thread-forum will be only one split into two, one in German and the same one in English. That is why we invite here everybody who could be interested to gather on the same following address: http://the/ligh/tbal/l.funpic.de .By honesty and also because our goal is not to deal with a forum, ours, is and will stay only one thread. Our little forum is very new and we hope that some of you will be able to join this new experience which will produce a new thread on your own forum with a new circle of witnesses through our forum, because we wish to spread the knowledge from this astonishing event for the best of the world. We are doing our best to contact as many people as possible and as many forums as we can to gather the witnesses and theexperience hoping that this will produce a new wave of information all over the world. The light ball gave also information about a kind of vessel called Merkabah (not exactly what is known in the Kabbalah) more used as a lighthouse to indicate to our cosmic brothers that we finally stepped into cosmic consciousness

Each witness had a very different experience with the experts' team. Some know some of them and only a little and some others know very well the whole team and even the hard disc itself, but everyone has a direct experience with this story. We believe that the diversity of the witnesses will bring more objectivity and interest for this so important subject which cannot be treated like any other subject. We hope to meet you in this so incredible discussion which will create a new spreading of the knowledge all over the world.

The organisers, one part of the witnesses. (http://theli/gh/tb/a/ll.f/unp/ic.de)

I'm sorry, Tommy Boy, that sounds like a death thweat against Michael Cook. I'd urge him to be cautious, but he'd burst out laughing for ten minutes if I did so. Can't blame him, either. You /are/ laughable, quite Yeah, right. It was parody, and you will never see one red cent from him, nor jail time for him, but you will continue to entertain usenet with insane rants detailing how he will pay, until you eventually croak.

Why bother? You're just a lame k00k.

What, until he dies, wealthy and surrounded by a large family, in another forty years or so? You won't live that long, Mousy. You're too old, and your body's much-abused by all that cheap booze. Face it, you have maybe a decade, perhaps fifteen years, and then you'll die alone, to be buried in a potter's field if you're lucky, cremated and the ashes dumped in the trash if you're not. I'd bet on "not".

Because of you I just upgraded (Saturday) from technician to general. I breezed the 5 wpm and am up to around 15wpm according to the W1AW pratice broadcasts. I never would have bothered to learn CW if it wasn't for you.

I know I only "need" 5 wpm but I am not going to upgrade to extra until I can cpy 25 wpm SOLID!

This is in honor of my electronic elmer, Slow Code.

Thanks......

I am sorry. I do not like to wear thongs.

The man conspirators of the Victoria Secret owned media need to stop marketing them to me. If you like them so much, you squeeze a string between your cheeks.

Fine, you won't even live another year, most likely. You'll die alone, an impotent, broken-down, washed-up, never-was of an abject failure, with no one to give a damn, except people on usenet who'll shake their heads at how k00ky you were. Meanwhile, Michael will live three or four more decades. Perhaps five. When he dies, he'll most likely barely remember you. When you die, you'll be ranting about him.

> I'll ignore you more.

Sure you will. Like so many others, I own you.

All Hail Discordia! TM#5; Flonk Leader 2 & 11-1/9
The Ridiculously Long Scarf of Tom Baker

1. What is this newsgroup, alt.usenet.kooks (AUK)?

A mass of electrons spread out upon bandwidth scattered across the globe for the express purpose of separating the wheat from the chaff of the net.

2. This is a joke, right? RIGHT?!!

No more a joke than the fact that ISPs let people on every day who have nothing better to do than annoy their neighbors enough to win by popular vote silly little awards created for just such buffoons as them.

3. What's this newsgroup for?

The newsgroup alt.usenet.kooks is for the discovery and discussion of Kooks on Usenet and the Internet. These people are known technically as net.kooks.

4. What's this newsgroup NOT for?

This group exists for recreational Kookology, not for Very Personal Vendetta. It is not to be used for general harassment of someone, or for net abuse such as spamming and flooding and cancelbombing in an attempt to gain vengeance on someone or get the denizens of AUK to shut up. Either way, it won't work, it's very messy, "Bob" will give you triple your money back, and you don't get a life.

Also, we [tinw] are not in the business of harassing the vulnerable or the insane. Occasionally an apparent net.kook proves to be genuinely ill. In such cases the person is disqualified from winning awards and other posters are asked to avoid exarcerbating his or her problems. Similarly, trolling or kook-hunting in support groups is strongly discouraged.

5. Who let this newsgroup in here, and why wasn't I notified?

That's what you get for hogging the Beer Fund.

(Here you can view the control message that started it all, from our Mighty Founder MAC.)

http://www.netcabal.com/auk/cmsg.html

6. Who is a net.kook?

If you post uniquely strange, preferably incomprehensible articles, or you manifest a persistent, extreme, and somewhat bizarre obsession, you just might be a net.kook. And more.

It is important to note the subtle distinction between a net.kook, a net.cretin, a clueless newbie, troll, or garden-variety @$$hole. The newbie, one hopes, can acquire a clue on the installment plan even if he can't afford to buy one for cash; the cretin is merely stupid and/or irritating; the troll makes a fool out of himself by making a fool out of you, the @$$hole is, well, simply that. But a TRUE net.kook has a special fascination derived from his/her/its utter ineffability. Their behavior is irrational, if not downright weird, but they are seldom merely boring.

It is not considered appropriate to nominate clueless newbies, trolls, or longwinded spambrains as net.kooks. It is acceptable to nominate net.cretins, or simply to present them, without nomination, for whatever minor amusement value they may have; but the real focus here is on net.kooks in all their raging, indomitable glory.

Important Disclaimer: the fact that someone has been proclaimed a net.kook does not imply any psychological diagnosis in and of itself. A net.kook may or may not be clinically insane; that is not the concern of the AUK audience.

We hope.

7. Can you show me a few examples?

I'd rather not, but it may help to clarify things... The person who posted a handful of meaningless, ill-formed newgroup messages on May 21, 1994 was a Clueless Newbie. The person who hung around alt.religion.kibology during April and May 1994, constantly posting boilerplate "warning" messages telling people that ARK messages were intentionally meaningless, was a net.cretin. The people who post demented "scientific" theories, like Archimedes Plutonium's concept of the universe being one giant atom of plutonium, and seem incorrigible to criticism, are moderate net.kooks. The sort of being who constantly raves about the conspiracy against her/him/it is an extreme net.kook, especially if he/she/it automatically assumes that anyone who questions their world-view is an agent of the conspirators or is an ultra right-wing/left-wing extremist, and hides behind an anonymous remailer to avoid "persecution" even though they would get one hell of a lot less of it by not posting at all.

8. How do I present a Kook on this group?

The preferred technique is to get the suspected Kook to start posting to AUK so that we can all see him/her/it in all their first-hand Glory. You can do this by posting followups to the suspect's weirder messages, with your followups nonchalantly crossposted to AUK. If the suspect responds to your messages without editing the Newsgroups line, you've achieved your goal.

Another acceptable method is to repost, complete and unedited, one or two of the suspected Kook's recent rants. If you do this, please provide a brief intro in the header describing what the hell you're doing, such as indicating who this person is, what group you found the message on, or why you think the rest of us should give a rat's @$$ about it.

You should be aware that if you try this with some perfectly reasonable posting, you may be flamed to net.hell and back and probably suspected of being a net.loon yourself. It is also considered extremely lame to nominate someone as a Kook simply because you have lost, or at least failed to win, a debate with them; persistently doing so is likely to get you nominated for Kook Awards. That someone fails to perceive the self-evident, unassailable wisdom of your viewpoint does not, in and of itself, constitute Kookery.

9. What are the Kook Awards?

The newsgroup alt.usenet.kooks offers a variety of widely-recognized and highly dubious honors for your service, applying to net.kooks everywhere. They recognize several kinds and many levels of net.kookery.

http://www.netcabal.com/auk/awards.html

10. Who the FSCK appointed YOU net.kookologist/god/nazi etc.

Nobody. We have a Gift.

11. Are there any holidays in AUK?

Why yes, there sure are:

March 30th - CALL to ARMMs

June 26th - KOOKS DAY

Named in commemoration of Earl Curley checking into the Motel Deep 6 to serve a major in the pine penalty box, the same date as Edmond Wollmann got arrested riding the San Clemente railway...on his motorcycle.

August 15th - DEAD DOC TAVISH DAY

Named in honor of the death of one of Usenet's most famed identities due to excessive Usenet exposure; his virtual corpse is buried in a rural cemetery near New Bremen, Texas

September 10th - KAZOO DAY

This holiday commemorates Raymond Ronald "Kazoo" Karczewski's conviction for seven felonies. May Raymold be a warning to all kooks who are tempted to think that a "Sovereign Christ" is above the law.

December 20th - AUK BIRTHDAY

The anniversary of the newgrouping of alt.usenet.kooks

12. What should I do if I'm paged on the Red Courtesy Telephone?

Give the caller Gandalf the Gray's speech to the demon. Verbatim.

13. Is alt.usenet.kooks archived anywhere?

Why would you even want to know? [But if you truly must know, GIYF. You masochist, you.]

14. What should we do about the book?

Burn it.

15. Where can I find out more about net.kooks?

Several mini-FAQs on classic kooks of the past and present (along with several non-kooky legendary netters) are available on the World Wide Web in various archives. Be sure to set aside coffee and cats before reading. [Try insurgent.org/kook-faq/]

16. What are the AUK Offices?

As well as the kook awards, kooks may compete to hold office for a month or longer. Nominations are made in exactly the same way as for awards; the difference is that the previous holder of the office always appears on the ballot paper when a new candidate emerges, and the winner remains in office until challenged again. At present, the offices are as follows.

Darth Bawl -

This office is held by Usenet's biggest crybaby.

Village Idiot -

The name says it all.

Kooki Information Minister -

Named in honour of Iraq's Mohammed Saeed al-Sahhaf, this office is held by the kook whose claims are most noticeably at variance with known facts.

Ministry of Circle Jerks -

Although many kooks are lone wolves, a few like to make friends with those who are as delusional as themselves. This office rewards the slurpfests that often ensue.

17. Are there any net.kook awards outside of AUK?

At various points of time there have been several, from the Christian groups' Steebie Award to alt.fan.art-bell's Angstrom Medal. At least two newsgroups, talk.politics.guns and comp.systems.mac.advocacy, have given out their own Kook of the Month awards. Check around from time to time to see what other net.kook awards might be around. [alt.atheism does them, too.]

18. What is the Cabal?

From the beginning of Usenet time, there has been but one force capable of holding it in check to remain in the realm of mortal existence. For today's Usenet world you need a Giant. A Behemoth. A Cabal of IMMENSE PROPORTIONS. A REALLY BIG CABAL to offer all news ORDER.

Within this force is the most ruthless and efficient organization on all Usenet, known as the Cabal Obsidian Order (COO). If YOU wish to know of this entity, read, learn, and do as you will.

SEE THE LIGHT OF COLLECTIVE WISDOM!!!

A. I SAID, what is the CABAL?

There Is No Cabal. Long Live The Cabal.

B. How does the Cabal function??

As well as any apocryphal organization can hope to function.

C. What are the weaknesses of the Cabal?

<chortle> What weaknesses?

D. What is the hierarchy and power structure of the Cabal?

Oh, you don't need to know that. Really. You can trust us, especially when it comes to information you haven't paid for.

E. What is the Cabal Obsidian Order?

The Cabal Obsidian Order (COO) is a profoundly secret collective of operatives designed to outrun, outgun and Eliminate the most vile scum and villainy the net has to offer.

F. How do I know if the COO is responsible for something?

If the COO's operatives are doing their job correctly, they'll be laughing at whoever is actually responsible.

G. Who are the leaders of the COO?

Leaders? Where we function we don't need Leaders.

H. What is the Beer Fund?

The more you contribute to it, the more we will tell you.

I. How may I apply to become an operative of the COO?

Pitiful begging at the Vote Wrangler's feet might help. Then again it might not.

19. Who is the FNVW?

Why, our highly esteemed Friendly Neighbourhood Vote Wrangler (FNVW), whose benevolent supreme dictatorship runs the electoral wheels of our great realm. Seven fearless folk have served, with distinction:

AUK VOTE WRANGLERS

Craig Dickson (1994-1995)
Matthew Legare (1995-1997)
Killfile Daemons (1997)
Robbie Honerkamp (1997-1998)
Phoenix (1997-2004)
Peter J Ross (2004-2006)
Sean Monaghan (2006-Present)

On retirement, Phoenix accepted the high office of Friendly Neighborhood "Bob"father.

20. Do I have what it takes to BE a Vote Wrangler?

<chortle> If you have to ask, you don't have what it takes.

21. Who do you %$#@!s think you are to oppose ME, Lord High Poster-Child of the Macrocosmic Universe?

We are the ones who can and will humiliate your @$$ if you use our group as your personal piss bowl. You are a freak of the universe. You do not give the orders here. And whether you like it or not, the universe is laughing behind your back.

22. That was MEAN, just plain MEAN!!!

Payback's a bitch, ain't it?

23. Should I expect ONE CONSISTENT response to my rude and obnoxious online behavior from the denizens of AUK?

Absolutely NOT.

24. To whom should I complain if I think I have been treated unfairly?

<Darth Vader>
You think you have been treated unfairly? </Darth Vader>

25. What kind of response can I expect as a result of my stupid online behavior at AUK?

Guilty party receives one or a combination thereof of the following assorted reactions (not at all limited to these, mind you):

1. Complete silence while we blow you off
2. Complete silence while we reload
3. Complete silence while we pull the plug on your account
4. Complete silence while we sleep at the switch

10. Complete silence while we bask in the pure glow of our obnoxiously self-righteous selves
11. Complete silence while we play high-stakes poker with Snoopy, Spike, Andy, Olaf, Marbles and Woodstock
12. Complete silence while we never notice your NoCeM'd post
13. Complete silence while we never notice your spam-canceled post
14. Complete silence while we run your rude and obnoxious posts through goofyizers for reposting
15. Complete silence while the Trekkies among us watch the USS Defiant blast bad guys' ships into rubble and fly through the debris with that nice halo of sparks effect

26. Sounds of astonishment as we MARVEL at the FREAK
27. Flames in your generally specific direction
28. Flames of you in the third, fourth and fifth person
29. Flames from the Vote Wrangler from the other side of the Galactic Killfile just to annoy all hell out of you
30. Nominations for many noteworthy Kook awards

26. Can I really be kicked off my ISP for...

Being a total @$$hole?

If you try hard enough.

Top-posting like the pathetic imbecile that I am?

Usually not, but we can always try.

Forging someone else's valid e-mail address?

Absolutely.

Posting multiple copies of the same message to individual news groups (Excessive Multi Posting [EMP])?

Of course. It's the SPAMMING, stupid.

27. Can I really be thrown in jail for posting threatening messages?

Yes. People have been tried and convicted for sending threatening or harassing Email or Usenet posts. We do NOT support censorship of the Internet; however, posting a message stating you are going to cause virtual or unvirtual harm to someone will probably gain you a visit from your Friendly Neighborhood FBI Agent.

28. Fine. I'll just remain anonymous. That'll work, right?

BWWAAAAAAAAA HA HA HA HA HA HA HA HA!!!!!!!!!!!!!!

Try it, pinkboy. An anon remailer service can be forced to turn you in for copyright violation, harassment, stalking; you name the crime - they've got the time. If you ran an anon remailer service what would be the point of protecting flagrant abusers of the net and the Law??

29. Okay, then I'll bust your #$%&$*!! @$$ off AUK instead!

Uh... yeah. Many denizens of AUK are abuse admins, know abuse admins, sleep with abuse admins, or otherwise have years of experience dealing with and educating others about precisely your kind of dubiosity. A good account is a terrible thing to waste, so don't sacrifice yours on our altar.

30. I just realized I am a Maroon. How can I improve my standing in the eyes of the Internet, my balloon doll, and, most importantly, "Bob"?

REPENT. The End is always near.

follow up. Just ignore them and they'll give up.

Stop giving them reasons to tease you. It only makes you look more stupid.

Take a break from the radio groups for a while, Maybe work on your

If your husband is an attorney, I suggest you get him to give you some legal advice. There's no way any "cease and desist" order or notice given on USENET can have any validity whatsoever in any court. You are just wasting your time - but by all means, continue entertaining the rest of us.

Well, I googled on JR. Guess what I found out? You're a paranoid k00k. You were temporarily confused with the k00k known as Jimmy The Sniggler, aka TH3, but you're still a k00k. However, I have the Outer Filth k00ks in rmcr (and their enablers) to attend to right now, so I won't be nominating you...this month.

Did you mean "blasphemous"? Because blasphemy is holy to me. So is disrespect...

> why not start tomarrow Woger I will be dealing with for a few more weeks > to months

Nope, we have you slated for at least a couple more weeks of humiliation, after which you will be banished to the Outer Darkness (nothing to do with Outer Filth) for being a boring k00k. After that, we can in turn investigate your opponents, at least most of whom, while not quite so boring, are very much k00ks. Homophobes, racists, and pedophiles/pederasts are all k00ks of the craziest sort, and rec.radio.* appears to be infested with them, along with net.KKKops such as yourself.

> you are clearly another delusional fake and a flake for that matter

No, I just happen to poast from a group which has an awful lot of sysadmins who're of a like mind with me about k00ks. Many k00ks are interesting to poke and prod, and such is our raison d'ï¿½tre. It may be cruel, but life's like that.

> grow up

Hey, I'm already 37. How much more "grown-up" do I need to be?

Nah, Wiseman had less to do with it than you, Mark. Anyway, Woger and the gang are getting theirs -- the Busted Urinal has only one nominee, TTBOMK, and that is rec.radio.amateur.policy.

Busted Urinal Award

The reward for the Lamest of the Lame on Usenet. One who clogs and stinks up the joint like a busted urinal, you could say.

It's a Lifetime Achievement Award, too, one about which kookologists will be reminding RRAP'ers for many years to come.

The fact that you think people are trying to "force you off the internet" is proof enough, all by itself. Get a grip, and realise you are not a VIP on usenet just because you have a rich husband. Before you start foaming at me, know that I can read an FAQ, too. _Now_, you can start foaming.

ABSOLUTELY! Annoying the fuck out of a net.KKKop tard like yourself is its own reward. Also, it's an object lesson in the kind of notoriety you /could/ have had, if you'd been a more interesting k00k. Finally, it's a precursor of the shape of things to come...

I see you have a misapprehension as to the nature of AUK. Please allow me to disabuse you once and for all with this FAQ (which you are free to ignore, of course, and we(tinw) are free to nominate you for all kinds of awards, too, which would guarantee much additional x-poasting into your group):

http://www.netcabal.com/auk/faq.html

1. What is this newsgroup, alt.usenet.kooks (AUK)?

A mass of electrons spread out upon bandwidth scattered across the globe for the express purpose of separating the wheat from the chaff of the net.

2. This is a joke, right? RIGHT?!!

No more a joke than the fact that ISPs let people on every day who have nothing better to do than annoy their neighbors enough to win by popular vote silly little awards created for just such buffoons as them.

3. What's this newsgroup for?

The newsgroup alt.usenet.kooks is for the discovery and discussion of Kooks on Usenet and the Internet. These people are known technically as net.kooks.

4. What's this newsgroup NOT for?

This group exists for recreational Kookology, not for Very Personal Vendetta. It is not to be used for general harassment of someone, or for net abuse such as spamming and flooding and cancelbombing in an attempt to gain vengeance on someone or get the denizens of AUK to shut up. Either way, it won't work, it's very messy, "Bob" will give you triple your money back, and you don't get a life.

Also, we [tinw] are not in the business of harassing the vulnerable or the insane. Occasionally an apparent net.kook proves to be genuinely ill. In such cases the person is disqualified from winning awards and other posters are asked to avoid exarcerbating his or her problems. Similarly, trolling or kook-hunting in support groups is strongly discouraged.

5. Who let this newsgroup in here, and why wasn't I notified?

That's what you get for hogging the Beer Fund.

(Here you can view the control message that started it all, from our Mighty Founder MAC.)

http://www.netcabal.com/auk/cmsg.html

6. Who is a net.kook?

If you post uniquely strange, preferably incomprehensible articles, or you manifest a persistent, extreme, and somewhat bizarre obsession, you just might be a net.kook. And more.

It is important to note the subtle distinction between a net.kook, a net.cretin, a clueless newbie, troll, or garden-variety @$$hole. The newbie, one hopes, can acquire a clue on the installment plan even if he can't afford to buy one for cash; the cretin is merely stupid and/or irritating; the troll makes a fool out of himself by making a fool out of you, the @$$hole is, well, simply that. But a TRUE net.kook has a special fascination derived from his/her/its utter ineffability. Their behavior is irrational, if not downright weird, but they are seldom merely boring.

It is not considered appropriate to nominate clueless newbies, trolls, or longwinded spambrains as net.kooks. It is acceptable to nominate net.cretins, or simply to present them, without nomination, for whatever minor amusement value they may have; but the real focus here is on net.kooks in all their raging, indomitable glory.

Important Disclaimer: the fact that someone has been proclaimed a net.kook does not imply any psychological diagnosis in and of itself. A net.kook may or may not be clinically insane; that is not the concern of the AUK audience.

We hope.

7. Can you show me a few examples?

I'd rather not, but it may help to clarify things... The person who posted a handful of meaningless, ill-formed newgroup messages on May 21, 1994 was a Clueless Newbie. The person who hung around alt.religion.kibology during April and May 1994, constantly posting boilerplate "warning" messages telling people that ARK messages were intentionally meaningless, was a net.cretin. The people who post demented "scientific" theories, like Archimedes Plutonium's concept of the universe being one giant atom of plutonium, and seem incorrigible to criticism, are moderate net.kooks. The sort of being who constantly raves about the conspiracy against her/him/it is an extreme net.kook, especially if he/she/it automatically assumes that anyone who questions their world-view is an agent of the conspirators or is an ultra right-wing/left-wing extremist, and hides behind an anonymous remailer to avoid "persecution" even though they would get one hell of a lot less of it by not posting at all.

8. How do I present a Kook on this group?

The preferred technique is to get the suspected Kook to start posting to AUK so that we can all see him/her/it in all their first-hand Glory. You can do this by posting followups to the suspect's weirder messages, with your followups nonchalantly crossposted to AUK. If the suspect responds to your messages without editing the Newsgroups line, you've achieved your goal.

Another acceptable method is to repost, complete and unedited, one or two of the suspected Kook's recent rants. If you do this, please provide a brief intro in the header describing what the hell you're doing, such as indicating who this person is, what group you found the message on, or why you think the rest of us should give a rat's @$$ about it.

You should be aware that if you try this with some perfectly reasonable posting, you may be flamed to net.hell and back and probably suspected of being a net.loon yourself. It is also considered extremely lame to nominate someone as a Kook simply because you have lost, or at least failed to win, a debate with them; persistently doing so is likely to get you nominated for Kook Awards. That someone fails to perceive the self-evident, unassailable wisdom of your viewpoint does not, in and of itself, constitute Kookery.

9. What are the Kook Awards?

The newsgroup alt.usenet.kooks offers a variety of widely-recognized and highly dubious honors for your service, applying to net.kooks everywhere. They recognize several kinds and many levels of net.kookery.

http://www.netcabal.com/auk/awards.html

10. Who the FSCK appointed YOU net.kookologist/god/nazi etc.

Nobody. We have a Gift.

11. Are there any holidays in AUK?

Why yes, there sure are:

March 30th - CALL to ARMMs

June 26th - KOOKS DAY

Named in commemoration of Earl Curley checking into the Motel Deep 6 to serve a major in the pine penalty box, the same date as Edmond Wollmann got arrested riding the San Clemente railway...on his motorcycle.

August 15th - DEAD DOC TAVISH DAY

Named in honor of the death of one of Usenet's most famed identities due to excessive Usenet exposure; his virtual corpse is buried in a rural cemetery near New Bremen, Texas

September 10th - KAZOO DAY

This holiday commemorates Raymond Ronald "Kazoo" Karczewski's conviction for seven felonies. May Raymold be a warning to all kooks who are tempted to think that a "Sovereign Christ" is above the law.

December 20th - AUK BIRTHDAY

The anniversary of the newgrouping of alt.usenet.kooks

12. What should I do if I'm paged on the Red Courtesy Telephone?

Give the caller Gandalf the Gray's speech to the demon. Verbatim.

13. Is alt.usenet.kooks archived anywhere?

Why would you even want to know? [But if you truly must know, GIYF. You masochist, you.]

14. What should we do about the book?

Burn it.

15. Where can I find out more about net.kooks?

Several mini-FAQs on classic kooks of the past and present (along with several non-kooky legendary netters) are available on the World Wide Web in various archives. Be sure to set aside coffee and cats before reading. [Try insurgent.org/kook-faq/]

16. What are the AUK Offices?

As well as the kook awards, kooks may compete to hold office for a month or longer. Nominations are made in exactly the same way as for awards; the difference is that the previous holder of the office always appears on the ballot paper when a new candidate emerges, and the winner remains in office until challenged again. At present, the offices are as follows.

Darth Bawl -

This office is held by Usenet's biggest crybaby.

Village Idiot -

The name says it all.

Kooki Information Minister -

Named in honour of Iraq's Mohammed Saeed al-Sahhaf, this office is held by the kook whose claims are most noticeably at variance with known facts.

Ministry of Circle Jerks -

Although many kooks are lone wolves, a few like to make friends with those who are as delusional as themselves. This office rewards the slurpfests that often ensue.

17. Are there any net.kook awards outside of AUK?

At various points of time there have been several, from the Christian groups' Steebie Award to alt.fan.art-bell's Angstrom Medal. At least two newsgroups, talk.politics.guns and comp.systems.mac.advocacy, have given out their own Kook of the Month awards. Check around from time to time to see what other net.kook awards might be around. [alt.atheism does them, too.]

18. What is the Cabal?

From the beginning of Usenet time, there has been but one force capable of holding it in check to remain in the realm of mortal existence. For today's Usenet world you need a Giant. A Behemoth. A Cabal of IMMENSE PROPORTIONS. A REALLY BIG CABAL to offer all news ORDER.

Within this force is the most ruthless and efficient organization on all Usenet, known as the Cabal Obsidian Order (COO). If YOU wish to know of this entity, read, learn, and do as you will.

SEE THE LIGHT OF COLLECTIVE WISDOM!!!

A. I SAID, what is the CABAL?

There Is No Cabal. Long Live The Cabal.

B. How does the Cabal function??

As well as any apocryphal organization can hope to function.

C. What are the weaknesses of the Cabal?

<chortle> What weaknesses?

D. What is the hierarchy and power structure of the Cabal?

Oh, you don't need to know that. Really. You can trust us, especially when it comes to information you haven't paid for.

E. What is the Cabal Obsidian Order?

The Cabal Obsidian Order (COO) is a profoundly secret collective of operatives designed to outrun, outgun and Eliminate the most vile scum and villainy the net has to offer.

F. How do I know if the COO is responsible for something?

If the COO's operatives are doing their job correctly, they'll be laughing at whoever is actually responsible.

G. Who are the leaders of the COO?

Leaders? Where we function we don't need Leaders.

H. What is the Beer Fund?

The more you contribute to it, the more we will tell you.

I. How may I apply to become an operative of the COO?

Pitiful begging at the Vote Wrangler's feet might help. Then again it might not.

19. Who is the FNVW?

Why, our highly esteemed Friendly Neighbourhood Vote Wrangler (FNVW), whose benevolent supreme dictatorship runs the electoral wheels of our great realm. Seven fearless folk have served, with distinction:

AUK VOTE WRANGLERS

Craig Dickson (1994-1995)
Matthew Legare (1995-1997)
Killfile Daemons (1997)
Robbie Honerkamp (1997-1998)
Phoenix (1997-2004)
Peter J Ross (2004-2006)
Sean Monaghan (2006-Present)

On retirement, Phoenix accepted the high office of Friendly Neighborhood "Bob"father.

20. Do I have what it takes to BE a Vote Wrangler?

<chortle> If you have to ask, you don't have what it takes.

21. Who do you %$#@!s think you are to oppose ME, Lord High Poster-Child of the Macrocosmic Universe?

We are the ones who can and will humiliate your @$$ if you use our group as your personal piss bowl. You are a freak of the universe. You do not give the orders here. And whether you like it or not, the universe is laughing behind your back.

22. That was MEAN, just plain MEAN!!!

Payback's a bitch, ain't it?

23. Should I expect ONE CONSISTENT response to my rude and obnoxious online behavior from the denizens of AUK?

Absolutely NOT.

24. To whom should I complain if I think I have been treated unfairly?

<Darth Vader>
You think you have been treated unfairly? </Darth Vader>

25. What kind of response can I expect as a result of my stupid online behavior at AUK?

Guilty party receives one or a combination thereof of the following assorted reactions (not at all limited to these, mind you):

1. Complete silence while we blow you off
2. Complete silence while we reload
3. Complete silence while we pull the plug on your account
4. Complete silence while we sleep at the switch
5. Complete silence while we sleep in our beds
6. Complete silence while we laugh behind your back
7. Complete silence while we wipe the splattered food and/or drinks off our screens
8. Complete silence while we contemplate the known macrocosmic universe
9. Complete silence while the Vote Wrangler pays good money to watch professional Denver teams find new ways to lose
10. Complete silence while we bask in the pure glow of our obnoxiously self-righteous selves
11. Complete silence while we play high-stakes poker with Snoopy, Spike, Andy, Olaf, Marbles and Woodstock
12. Complete silence while we never notice your NoCeM'd post
13. Complete silence while we never notice your spam-canceled post
14. Complete silence while we run your rude and obnoxious posts through goofyizers for reposting
15. Complete silence while the Trekkies among us watch the USS Defiant blast bad guys' ships into rubble and fly through the debris with that nice halo of sparks effect
16. Complete silence while we wait for our Gates-sponsored software systems to uncrash themselves
17. General laughter at your expense
18. General laughter and pointing at your expense
19. General laughter, pointing and personal insults at your expense
20. Someone exposes your true service provider to the Rabble
21. Someone does any of 1-20 and reports you to your state's Attorney General
22. Someone does any of 1-21 and reports you to the FBI National Computer Crime Squad (nccs@fbi.gov)
23. Someone does any of 1-22 and does highly amusing parodies of you during the entire process
24. Talk amongst ourselves about life, love and why they sell 8-hot-dog weenie sets with 10-bun packages
25. Sounds of awe as we wonder with dropped mouths how you were able to make a greater fool of yourself than you already had

26. Sounds of astonishment as we MARVEL at the FREAK
27. Flames in your generally specific direction
28. Flames of you in the third, fourth and fifth person
29. Flames from the Vote Wrangler from the other side of the Galactic Killfile just to annoy all hell out of you
30. Nominations for many noteworthy Kook awards

26. Can I really be kicked off my ISP for...

Being a total @$$hole?

If you try hard enough.

Top-posting like the pathetic imbecile that I am?

Usually not, but we can always try.

Forging someone else's valid e-mail address?

Absolutely.

Posting multiple copies of the same message to individual news groups (Excessive Multi Posting [EMP])?

Of course. It's the SPAMMING, stupid.

27. Can I really be thrown in jail for posting threatening messages?

Yes. People have been tried and convicted for sending threatening or harassing Email or Usenet posts. We do NOT support censorship of the Internet; however, posting a message stating you are going to cause virtual or unvirtual harm to someone will probably gain you a visit from your Friendly Neighborhood FBI Agent.

28. Fine. I'll just remain anonymous. That'll work, right?

BWWAAAAAAAAA HA HA HA HA HA HA HA HA HA!!!!!!!!!!!!!!

Try it, pinkboy. An anon remailer service can be forced to turn you in for copyright violation, harassment, stalking; you name the crime - they've got the time. If you ran an anon remailer service what would be the point of protecting flagrant abusers of the net and the Law??

29. Okay, then I'll bust your #$%&$*!! @$$ off AUK instead!

Uh... yeah. Many denizens of AUK are abuse admins, know abuse admins, sleep with abuse admins, or otherwise have years of experience dealing with and educating others about precisely your kind of dubiosity. A good account is a terrible thing to waste, so don't sacrifice yours on our altar.

30. I just realized I am a Maroon. How can I improve my standing in the eyes of the Internet, my balloon doll, and, most importantly, "Bob"?

REPENT. The End is always near.

Oh, how cwever, Mark, you snecked the froups. Anyway. Wiseman's a fucktard who will get his full recognition in due course, but yours will come first, boring k00k. Your admonitions to "cease and desist" are meaningless and carry no weight with any ISP or court of law. You may eventually wind up with the Balsa Gavel, if you keep it up. That one goes to litigious kooks, and showcases their complete legal impotency.

Thanks for the compliment, Alexa, but I'm not spooge. Not that you're one

Kook of the Month

Every month special recognition is given to someone whose Kookery is judged to have surpassed all others. This is the Kook of the Month award (KotM), voted (somewhat informally) by the denizens of AUK.

From the FAQ:

6. Who is a net.kook?

If you post uniquely strange, preferably incomprehensible articles, or you manifest a persistent, extreme, and somewhat bizarre obsession, you just might be a net.kook. And more.

It is important to note the subtle distinction between a net.kook, a net.cretin, a clueless newbie, troll, or garden-variety @$$hole. The newbie, one hopes, can acquire a clue on the installment plan even if he can't afford to buy one for cash; the cretin is merely stupid and/or irritating; the troll makes a fool out of himself by making a fool out of you, the @$$hole is, well, simply that. But a TRUE net.kook has a special fascination derived from his/her/its utter ineffability. Their behavior is irrational, if not downright weird, but they are seldom merely boring.

It is not considered appropriate to nominate clueless newbies, trolls, or longwinded spambrains as net.kooks. It is acceptable to nominate net.cretins, or simply to present them, without nomination, for whatever minor amusement value they may have; but the real focus here is on net.kooks in all their raging, indomitable glory.

Important Disclaimer: the fact that someone has been proclaimed a net.kook does not imply any psychological diagnosis in and of itself. A net.kook may or may not be clinically insane; that is not the concern of the AUK audience.

We hope.

Let's get on with the voting, I have no doubt that RRCB has plenty of candidates worthy of an award.

The voting for the August awards begins on September 1st, around 4am PT (if the FNVW/FNVW Emeritus has managed to finish compiling all the nominations for the various awards and offices by then). Coincidentally, that is likely to be the same time and date as voting for the July awards, due to the FNVW's prolonged absence in July, meaning he has had to compile the noms and secondings from Google, and validate them all (to prevent secondings by k00ks, sockpuppets, anonymous posters, Michael Baldwin Bruce*, etc., or nominations by same without two or more secondings by known kookologists), as well.

Meanwhile, nominations are still on for the August ballot, and anyone may nominate. Just remember, nominations without evidence will be laughed at, and nominations by known or suspected k00ks (of whatever brand) need more evidence than usual. Being k00ks, their judgment is in question, hence the additional need for kookologists to second them.

[*] Michael Baldwin Bruce was a kookologist (at least, he hung out in AUK, and poked, nominated, seconded nominations for, and voted on k00ks, and now he can only do the first two) until late last year, when saucerhead k00k "Double-A" nominated him for, IIRC, Busted Urinal (due to extreme and incessant racism, sexism, and homophobia in his posts), which he won. Kookle him here, to see what else he won:

Federal judge orders end to wiretap program
Justice Department appeals ruling; White House strongly opposes move

Aug. 17: A federal judge ruled the governmentï¿½s wiretapping program is unconstitutional.

NBCï¿½s Rosiland Jordan reports.
MSNBC News Services

Updated: 3:52 p.m. ET Aug 17, 2006

DETROIT - A federal judge ruled Thursday that the governmentï¿½s warrantless wiretapping program is unconstitutional and ordered an immediate halt to it. The White House said it ï¿½couldn't disagreeï¿½ more with the ruling.

U.S. District Judge Anna Diggs Taylor in Detroit became the first judge to strike down the National Security Agencyï¿½s program, which she says violates the rights to free speech and privacy as well as the separation of powers enshrined in the Constitution.

ï¿½Plaintiffs have prevailed, and the public interest is clear, in this matter. It is the upholding of our Constitution,ï¿½ Taylor wrote in her 43-page opinion.

The U.S. Justice Department appealed the ruling and issued a statement saying the program is ï¿½an essential tool for the intelligence community in the war on terror.ï¿½

ï¿½In the ongoing conflict with al-Qaida and its allies, the president has the primary duty under the Constitution to protect the American people,ï¿½ the department said. ï¿½The Constitution gives the president the full authority necessary to carry out that solemn duty, and we believe the program is lawful and protects civil liberties.ï¿½

White House spokesman Tony Snow said the Bush administration's ï¿½Terrorist Surveillance Programï¿½ is ï¿½firmly grounded in law and regularly reviewed to make sure steps are taken to protect civil liberties.ï¿½

ï¿½Checks and balancesï¿½
The American Civil Liberties Union filed the lawsuit on behalf of journalists, scholars and lawyers who say the program has made it difficult for them to do their jobs. They believe many of their overseas contacts are likely targets of the program, which involves wiretapping conversations between people in the U.S. and those in other countries.

The government argued that the program is well within the presidentï¿½s authority, but said proving that would require revealing state secrets.

The ACLU said the state-secrets argument was irrelevant because the Bush administration already had publicly revealed enough information about the program for Taylor to rule.

ï¿½At its core, todayï¿½s ruling addresses the abuse of presidential power and reaffirms the system of checks and balances thatï¿½s necessary to our democracy,ï¿½ ACLU executive director Anthony Romero told reporters after the ruling.

He called the opinion ï¿½another nail in the coffin in the Bush administrationï¿½s legal strategy in the war on terror.ï¿½

One ruling against ACLU
While siding with the ACLU on the wiretapping issue, Taylor dismissed a separate claim by the group over NSA data-mining of phone records. She said not enough had been publicly revealed about that program to support the claim and further litigation would jeopardize state secrets.

The lawsuit alleged that the NSA ï¿½uses artificial intelligence aids to search for keywords and analyze patterns in millions of communications at any given time.ï¿½ Multiple lawsuits have been filed related to data-mining against phone companies, accusing them of improperly turning over records to the NSA.

However, the data-mining was only a small part of the Detroit suit, said Ann Beeson, the ACLUï¿½s associate legal director and the lead attorney on the case.

Beeson predicted the government would appeal the wiretapping ruling and request that the order to halt the program be postponed while the case makes its way through the system. She said the ACLU had not yet decided whether it would oppose such a postponement.

<curls toes> Well, that too, but...

I still have nightmares about that bottle of habanero hot sauce you drank: I'm tied to a stake, standing atop a pile of flaming wood...

It burns, ya bastard.

I would suggest throwing caution to the wind, but that implies some

Well, okay. But where I come from, unless one has passed the bar, one is not a lawyer, but merely someone who has gone to law school.

The semantic issue aside, you would do well to avoid taking advice from one who is not a practicing attorney, especially when it comes to usenet.

I agree that every woman needs to have her own bank account and credit cards. I don't agree that the funding for either should come from a spouse (unless there are minor children in the home).

I find that those who stay home all day, with too little to occupy themselves, end up wreaking all manner of havoc just to feel as if they have a life.

On the other hand, a bastard is going to behave like a bastard, whether or not you have your own money. Better to find a good man at the outset than to hope you can come up the winner in a power struggle with a son-of-a-bitch. Power struggles suck--they are representative of cold war, not love--and engaging in them gets one into the very bad habit of trying to "win" with everyone one meets.

I guess what I'm saying, Kathy, is that I begin to see the root of the problem here.

well be the fucking laziest net.KKKop in usenet history? 'Cause I think he is. Not that there's any chance he'll stop being impotent even if he stops being lazy, but he's damn lazy.

Yeah. But alternate the heat with some cool. Not that I'm suggesting you need any tips, but I'll share anyway. Hey? That's just the kinda guy I am.

Here's my advice;

Brush yer teeth first, but remember to keep the toothpaste handy. Sneak it outta the bathroom if ya have to. Then after all the kissy-kissy stuff is over and you're all set to get down to business, grab the toothpaste and put just a little dab on the end of yer tongue. Swoosh it around a little in yer mouth so it's not too intense for her. (Spearmint-flavor works best, I've found) Now slowly get to work rockin' the little man in the boat remembering not to lick your eyebrows beforehand lest you lose the effect. Once you have him (and her) listing a bit, stop for just a second and blow lightly on her clit (being careful not to blow air up her snatch ... don't wanna chance any of those pesky embolisms ya know) and then go right back to what you were just doing. Repeat every 30 seconds or so until she convulses in ecstasy while ripping every last follicle of hair outta the back of your head. Should take about 2-5 minutes if ya do it right.

Take it or leave it.

If it takes 2-5 minutes, it's being done wrong.

30-45 seconds...and then every 30-45 seconds thereafter...and for a lot longer than 2-5 minutes.

Pissed? I don't get pissed. But you did something before that for which I'm never going to forgive you for until you retract or apologize. The fact that I'm willing to accept a retraction or apology from you is a pretty big deal. From most people, for such a transgression, I wouldn't accept either.

Your wife only forgave you because she loves you, remember?

First I'll have to know what I wrote that offended you so. Then I'll make a decision. Message ID?

And I her. Many times. That's what love is. Minor transgressions (no matter how irritating) should always be forgiven. Don't you love me? ;-)

Who's blaming anything on anyone? You gonna sit there and tell me that every woman takes the same amount of time to get from the staging area to the finish line?

If what you wrote above is true, you're actually the inverse of the Energizer Bunny. I mean, that thing keeps, "going and going".

Even if I did, it would not be anywhere near enough to let you use the
"c" word on me.

As I recall, your bride didn't consider it a minor transgression either.

Now would be a good time to grovel.

I'm telling you that many more women would be quicker if so many men weren't clueless.

I don't know how to be more plain than that.

But you don't use a newsreader with a Bozo Bin. Instead of being a grown-up and ignoring the posts you don't like, you tell people to "cease and desist" posting, even when their posts have nothing to do with you. You're a bit of a fascist, worthy of poking with a pointy stick, but you are also, unfortunatly, a bore. Got anything in your kook arsenel, besides "cease and desist, fake"?

First off, I have no secrets, and I'm very forthcoming about myself--much to the dismay of some of my friends--but I'm pretty sure I wouldn't involve my husband's business in a usenet flamewar, particularly if he were a professional with a reputation to protect.

I couldn't find him in Martindale, which makes sense if he doesn't practice. I'm not going to talk to the California bar, because that's just too intrusive for my taste, but I've recently worked with a firm in Bakersfield on a trust matter, and if the opportunity arises, I might make casual inquiry. That's just to satisfy my own curiosity; it's not something I would post about either way.

Still, a non-practicing attorney is as useless as one who practices outside his area of expertise.

All lawyers are not created equal. I once had the disturbing experience of working in the same building as one who graduated next to last in his class and received the lowest possible passing percentage on the bar exam. He was a fucking idiot.

This isn't a battle, and there are no spoils of war to be had. As soon as you figure that out, the happier your life will be, on and off the net.

I don't expect you to understand that. I do expect that you will continue on making fodder of yourself for the entertainment and amusement of the rest of us. But you'll never be able to say, "No one told me."

So I recently bought a 102" ss whip from Ratshack... While screwing it into the mount, it caught a bit of friction and 3/4 of the threaded end sheared off in the mount.

Has this happened to anyone before? I dont know whether I'm going to get a new one from RS, or if i'll just get my money back and order one from some other company..

looking for recommendations...

frickin minutes to get off. i couldnt talk for an hour after each go.
it was like when you go to the dentist and get novacained, and yer tongue cant move and all you do is drool all over yourself. she said ive actually met the energizer bunny once. in 1994. at a "Quality" rally i worked on for Black & Decker while i worked for them. he was pretty sweaty and lethargic with the bunny head removed.

and i sat in the Oscar Mayer hotdog mobile once in Baltimore while i was working for a semiconductor rep. the driver didnt buy any chips, but it was still fun.

Shaw Communications: CIA Front Operation

Jihad Unspun Exposed
As CIA Outfit?
Liberty Forum.org
11-23-4

Regarding http://www.jihadunspun.com --

This professionally managed website with eyecatching design and graphics and daily news features, video store and reporters emerged on the net sometime after Sept. 11th 2001.

What really struck me as odd was all the professional glitz of the website as well as its deliberate attempt to look Arabic (Notice the Koranic translations with curved font!)

From what I know of pro-jihad websites, they operate on a shoestring budget, provided they happen to find volunteers and donors who are willing to risk being deported and detained. They get kicked off from ISP to ISP and use cheap frontpage templates. Real Jihad websites try to imitate the West in web design rather than coming up with colors that seem to resemble the robes of a sand dune shape and Arabic shaped English text.One such authentic website was the one run by a well known Saudi dissident, Azzam.com. More about Azzam later.

Now getting back to Jihadunspun (JUS), the Related links tab first displayed the address of some muslim name in British Columbia Canada. So right in our backyard we have a semi Al Qaeda operation which unlike Azzam doesnt even lose its ISP, let alone get shut down.

Next, take a closer look at the website.....This is a very sophisticated operation and I am sure that even some of its own muslim reporters have no clue what is going on. But again, as the graphic on its homepage portrays Bush on one side and Binladen on the other. For an agitated muslim as well as reactionary goyim, the NWO reinforces the assertion it made on Sept.11th by bringing down those towers by "heated jet fuel ": The war of civilisations is on : Binladen after grandly bringing down the towers now seeks to further his Jihad on the West.

Secondly, unlike other genuine Jihad sites, there is not even a whisper of conspiracy regarding Sept 11th on this site. In other words,
1. The goyim must continue hunting "Al Qaeda"
2 The muslims should resume the "jihad" on the West inaugurated by Binladen.
OR IN OTHER WORDS, NWO/ JEWISH CABBAL/ ILLUMINATI /SATAN/ CIA AGENDA! Notice how the tab "The players" has only Bush Binladen and Co. whereas the Real players are simply missing.

There is also another purpose. Suppose Bush is having a real unpopular moment. Jihadunspun could furnish another lab doctored video/audio recording of Binladen urging war on Americans. This will serve to distract and at the same time emphasise the need for a war. With its Al Qaeda credentials, few would doubt the source.

Here is what I found in a Chicago Tribune article

Quote:

Some Web watchers, including Katz, believe the U.S. government may be using the Internet jihad to spy. They speculate that Jihad Unspun, an English-language site that appears to promote terror, may be a CIA creation, designed to find out who visits or orders videos glorifying bin Laden.

A lengthy notice on Jihad Unspun denies the allegations, saying the site is "a labor of love for Allah." Bruce Kennedy, identified on the site as editor in chief, said by e-mail that Jihad Unspun's operators "are not doing any interviews with American press at this time." A CIA spokesman denied the site has any connection to the agency.

Labour of love for Allah? Doesnt that sound a bit too wannabe muslim? Trust me, the muslims I know have Allah an established factor. They dont take in this "pleasing the emperor style which more depicts stereotypes of muslims.Why do I get the same feeling when I bumped into a male posing as 16/f/nyc?

Another tidbit.....a buddy of mine started liking JUS and decided to get involved on its fancy forums. Whatever got into him, the first article he posted was about How the CIA backed Saddam. Next day, he discovers he is a non-entity! no invalid pw or email notification....it simply says he is not a member ! If you guys have time, try it out. Post some hard stuff on the CIA and tell me here how long you lasted.

Here is some interesting stuff I found in the contact information under domain name lookup.
Jihad Unspun

Interesting.....who is Bruce Kennedy? That would be a name I would like to keep as a handle. Well, as i have said before, some time back there was a muslim name and address in British Columbia (Canada). It seems the muslim paypal screwed it up or something so now they got this all white American convert to try explain where all the expertise and $$$ are coming from.

The website is hosted by two servers, one is a rather unheard of server in NWO backyard Canada
209.139.224.132
GT Group Telecom Services Corp. -Pacific

Apart from jihadunspun.com, These creatures even have $$$ to keep jihadunspun.net registered in their name on another Canadian server

Now do you suppose These Canadian Companies would be interested in hosting pro-Al Qaeda websites?

In addition, both servers are hosted through YOURGALAXY.COM which seems to be some newfangled business AGAIN in British Columbia Canadafor providing streaming video support for JUS Binladen videos! Here is what I found about YOURGALAXY.COM E-Tech Computers Inc.

Richmond, British Columbia V6X 3Z8
Canada
jason@gigasales.com

Boy thats a lot of $$$.....if JUS is a genuine Jihad Site, then the Saudis must be pouring in money like sand.

Now here's what happened lately.....Genuine Jihad site Azzam.com smelt something wrong in wannabe jihadi site JUS and sounded the alarm by publishing articles titled "JUS is CIA". Since Azzam is widely read, it had to be closed, or it would be the end of an expensive well orchestrated operation. For reasons unknown, Azzam.com was instantly shut down and has been offline since then.

In order to counter the damage done by Azzam.com, JUS published some damage control, which can be best described as the work of some other "Bruce Kennedy" whose experience with Islamic Arabs is Lawrence of Arabia movies and Tintin comics. Dont be impressed by the dropping of Koranic verses and Arabic lines. You can get Pakistani muslims@ 5$ an hour to do that. I am posting the whole article just in case JUS deletes it from its website noticing clumsiness.

AND I INVITE ALL OF YOU TO TAKE A GOOD READ AND JUDGE FOR YOURSELF WHETHER "BRUCE KENNEDY" WILL PLAY A GOOD ARABIAN FEMME ONLINE OR SHOULD BE REPOSTED BACK TO THE CIA RADIO STATION IN ALASKA.

Shaw Communications: CIA Front Operation

Jihad Unspun Exposed
As CIA Outfit?
Liberty Forum.org
11-23-4

Regarding http://www.jihadunspun.com --

This professionally managed website with eyecatching design and graphics and daily news features, video store and reporters emerged on the net sometime after Sept. 11th 2001.

What really struck me as odd was all the professional glitz of the website as well as its deliberate attempt to look Arabic (Notice the Koranic translations with curved font!)

From what I know of pro-jihad websites, they operate on a shoestring budget, provided they happen to find volunteers and donors who are willing to risk being deported and detained. They get kicked off from ISP to ISP and use cheap frontpage templates. Real Jihad websites try to imitate the West in web design rather than coming up with colors that seem to resemble the robes of a sand dune shape and Arabic shaped English text.One such authentic website was the one run by a well known Saudi dissident, Azzam.com. More about Azzam later.

Now getting back to Jihadunspun (JUS), the Related links tab first displayed the address of some muslim name in British Columbia Canada. So right in our backyard we have a semi Al Qaeda operation which unlike Azzam doesnt even lose its ISP, let alone get shut down.

Next, take a closer look at the website.....This is a very sophisticated operation and I am sure that even some of its own muslim reporters have no clue what is going on. But again, as the graphic on its homepage portrays Bush on one side and Binladen on the other. For an agitated muslim as well as reactionary goyim, the NWO reinforces the assertion it made on Sept.11th by bringing down those towers by "heated jet fuel ": The war of civilisations is on : Binladen after grandly bringing down the towers now seeks to further his Jihad on the West.

Secondly, unlike other genuine Jihad sites, there is not even a whisper of conspiracy regarding Sept 11th on this site. In other words,
1. The goyim must continue hunting "Al Qaeda"
2 The muslims should resume the "jihad" on the West inaugurated by Binladen.
OR IN OTHER WORDS, NWO/ JEWISH CABBAL/ ILLUMINATI /SATAN/ CIA AGENDA! Notice how the tab "The players" has only Bush Binladen and Co. whereas the Real players are simply missing.

There is also another purpose. Suppose Bush is having a real unpopular moment. Jihadunspun could furnish another lab doctored video/audio recording of Binladen urging war on Americans. This will serve to distract and at the same time emphasise the need for a war. With its Al Qaeda credentials, few would doubt the source.

Here is what I found in a Chicago Tribune article

Quote:

Some Web watchers, including Katz, believe the U.S. government may be using the Internet jihad to spy. They speculate that Jihad Unspun, an English-language site that appears to promote terror, may be a CIA creation, designed to find out who visits or orders videos glorifying bin Laden.

A lengthy notice on Jihad Unspun denies the allegations, saying the site is "a labor of love for Allah." Bruce Kennedy, identified on the site as editor in chief, said by e-mail that Jihad Unspun's operators "are not doing any interviews with American press at this time." A CIA spokesman denied the site has any connection to the agency.

Labour of love for Allah? Doesnt that sound a bit too wannabe muslim? Trust me, the muslims I know have Allah an established factor. They dont take in this "pleasing the emperor style which more depicts stereotypes of muslims.Why do I get the same feeling when I bumped into a male posing as 16/f/nyc?

Another tidbit.....a buddy of mine started liking JUS and decided to get involved on its fancy forums. Whatever got into him, the first article he posted was about How the CIA backed Saddam. Next day, he discovers he is a non-entity! no invalid pw or email notification....it simply says he is not a member ! If you guys have time, try it out. Post some hard stuff on the CIA and tell me here how long you lasted.

Here is some interesting stuff I found in the contact information under domain name lookup.

Interesting.....who is Bruce Kennedy? That would be a name I would like to keep as a handle. Well, as i have said before, some time back there was a muslim name and address in British Columbia (Canada). It seems the muslim paypal screwed it up or something so now they got this all white American convert to try explain where all the expertise and $$$ are coming from.

The website is hosted by two servers, one is a rather unheard of server in NWO backyard Canada

Boy thats a lot of $$$.....if JUS is a genuine Jihad Site, then the Saudis must be pouring in money like sand.

Now here's what happened lately.....Genuine Jihad site Azzam.com smelt something wrong in wannabe jihadi site JUS and sounded the alarm by publishing articles titled "JUS is CIA". Since Azzam is widely read, it had to be closed, or it would be the end of an expensive well orchestrated operation. For reasons unknown, Azzam.com was instantly shut down and has been offline since then.

In order to counter the damage done by Azzam.com, JUS published some damage control, which can be best described as the work of some other "Bruce Kennedy" whose experience with Islamic Arabs is Lawrence of Arabia movies and Tintin comics. Dont be impressed by the dropping of Koranic verses and Arabic lines. You can get Pakistani muslims@ 5$ an hour to do that. I am posting the whole article just in case JUS deletes it from its website noticing clumsiness.

Shaw Communications: CIA Front Operation

Jihad Unspun Exposed
As CIA Outfit?

Regarding http://www.jihadunspun.com --

This professionally managed website with eyecatching design and graphics and daily news features, video store and reporters emerged on the net sometime after Sept. 11th 2001.

What really struck me as odd was all the professional glitz of the website as well as its deliberate attempt to look Arabic (Notice the Koranic translations with curved font!)

From what I know of pro-jihad websites, they operate on a shoestring budget, provided they happen to find volunteers and donors who are willing to risk being deported and detained. They get kicked off from ISP to ISP and use cheap frontpage templates. Real Jihad websites try to imitate the West in web design rather than coming up with colors that seem to resemble the robes of a sand dune shape and Arabic shaped English text.One such authentic website was the one run by a well known Saudi dissident, Azzam.com. More about Azzam later.

Now getting back to Jihadunspun (JUS), the Related links tab first displayed the address of some muslim name in British Columbia Canada. So right in our backyard we have a semi Al Qaeda operation which unlike Azzam doesnt even lose its ISP, let alone get shut down.

Next, take a closer look at the website.....This is a very sophisticated operation and I am sure that even some of its own muslim reporters have no clue what is going on. But again, as the graphic on its homepage portrays Bush on one side and Binladen on the other. For an agitated muslim as well as reactionary goyim, the NWO reinforces the assertion it made on Sept.11th by bringing down those towers by "heated jet fuel ": The war of civilisations is on : Binladen after grandly bringing down the towers now seeks to further his Jihad on the West.

Secondly, unlike other genuine Jihad sites, there is not even a whisper of conspiracy regarding Sept 11th on this site. In other words,
1. The goyim must continue hunting "Al Qaeda"
2 The muslims should resume the "jihad" on the West inaugurated by Binladen.
OR IN OTHER WORDS, NWO/ JEWISH CABBAL/ ILLUMINATI /SATAN/ CIA AGENDA! Notice how the tab "The players" has only Bush Binladen and Co. whereas the Real players are simply missing.

There is also another purpose. Suppose Bush is having a real unpopular moment. Jihadunspun could furnish another lab doctored video/audio recording of Binladen urging war on Americans. This will serve to distract and at the same time emphasise the need for a war. With its Al Qaeda credentials, few would doubt the source.

Here is what I found in a Chicago Tribune article

Quote:

Some Web watchers, including Katz, believe the U.S. government may be using the Internet jihad to spy. They speculate that Jihad Unspun, an English-language site that appears to promote terror, may be a CIA creation, designed to find out who visits or orders videos glorifying bin Laden.

A lengthy notice on Jihad Unspun denies the allegations, saying the site is "a labor of love for Allah." Bruce Kennedy, identified on the site as editor in chief, said by e-mail that Jihad Unspun's operators "are not doing any interviews with American press at this time." A CIA spokesman denied the site has any connection to the agency.

Labour of love for Allah? Doesnt that sound a bit too wannabe muslim? Trust me, the muslims I know have Allah an established factor. They dont take in this "pleasing the emperor style which more depicts stereotypes of muslims.Why do I get the same feeling when I bumped into a male posing as 16/f/nyc?

Another tidbit.....a buddy of mine started liking JUS and decided to get involved on its fancy forums. Whatever got into him, the first article he posted was about How the CIA backed Saddam. Next day, he discovers he is a non-entity! no invalid pw or email notification....it simply says he is not a member ! If you guys have time, try it out. Post some hard stuff on the CIA and tell me here how long you lasted.

Here is some interesting stuff I found in the contact information under domain name lookup.

Interesting.....who is Bruce Kennedy? That would be a name I would like to keep as a handle. Well, as i have said before, some time back there was a muslim name and address in British Columbia (Canada). It seems the muslim paypal screwed it up or something so now they got this all white American convert to try explain where all the expertise and $$$ are coming from.

The website is hosted by two servers, one is a rather unheard of server in NWO backyard Canada

Now do you suppose These Canadian Companies would be interested in hosting pro-Al Qaeda websites?

Boy thats a lot of $$$.....if JUS is a genuine Jihad Site, then the Saudis must be pouring in money like sand.

Now here's what happened lately.....Genuine Jihad site Azzam.com smelt something wrong in wannabe jihadi site JUS and sounded the alarm by publishing articles titled "JUS is CIA". Since Azzam is widely read, it had to be closed, or it would be the end of an expensive well orchestrated operation. For reasons unknown, Azzam.com was instantly shut down and has been offline since then.

In order to counter the damage done by Azzam.com, JUS published some damage control, which can be best described as the work of some other "Bruce

Kennedy" whose experience with Islamic Arabs is Lawrence of Arabia movies and Tintin comics. Dont be impressed by the dropping of Koranic verses and Arabic lines. You can get Pakistani muslims@ 5$ an hour to do that. I am posting the whole article just in case JUS deletes it from its website noticing clumsiness.

AND I INVITE ALL OF YOU TO TAKE A GOOD READ AND JUDGE FOR YOURSELF WHETHER "BRUCE KENNEDY" WILL PLAY A GOOD ARABIAN FEMME ONLINE OR SHOULD BE REPOSTED BACK TO THE CIA RADIO STATION IN ALASKA.

A lengthy notice on Jihad Unspun denies the allegations, saying the site is "a labor of love for Allah." Bruce Kennedy, identified on the site as editor in chief, said by e-mail that Jihad Unspun's operators "are not doing any interviews with American press at this time." A CIA spokesman denied the site has any connection to the agency.

Labour of love for Allah? Doesnt that sound a bit too wannabe muslim? Trust me, the muslims I know have Allah an established factor. They dont take in this "pleasing the emperor style which more depicts stereotypes of muslims.Why do I get the same feeling when I bumped into a male posing as 16/f/nyc?

Another tidbit.....a buddy of mine started liking JUS and decided to get involved on its fancy forums. Whatever got into him, the first article he posted was about How the CIA backed Saddam. Next day, he discovers he is a non-entity! no invalid pw or email notification....it simply says he is not a member ! If you guys have time, try it out. Post some hard stuff on the CIA and tell me here how long you lasted.

Here is some interesting stuff I found in the contact information under domain name lookup.

Interesting.....who is Bruce Kennedy? That would be a name I would like to keep as a handle. Well, as i have said before, some time back there was a muslim name and address in British Columbia (Canada). It seems the muslim paypal screwed it up or something so now they got this all white American convert to try explain where all the expertise and $$$ are coming from.

Boy thats a lot of $$$.....if JUS is a genuine Jihad Site, then the Saudis must be pouring in money like sand.

Now here's what happened lately.....Genuine Jihad site Azzam.com smelt something wrong in wannabe jihadi site JUS and sounded the alarm by publishing articles titled "JUS is CIA". Since Azzam is widely read, it had to be closed, or it would be the end of an expensive well orchestrated operation. For reasons unknown, Azzam.com was instantly shut down and has been offline since then.

In order to counter the damage done by Azzam.com, JUS published some damage control, which can be best described as the work of some other "Bruce

Kennedy" whose experience with Islamic Arabs is Lawrence of Arabia movies and Tintin comics. Dont be impressed by the dropping of Koranic verses and Arabic lines. You can get Pakistani muslims@ 5$ an hour to do that. I am posting the whole article just in case JUS deletes it from its website noticing clumsiness.

AND I INVITE ALL OF YOU TO TAKE A GOOD READ AND JUDGE FOR YOURSELF WHETHER "BRUCE KENNEDY" WILL PLAY A GOOD ARABIAN FEMME ONLINE OR SHOULD BE REPOSTED BACK TO THE CIA RADIO STATION IN ALASKA.

Shaw Communications: CIA Front Operation

Jihad Unspun Exposed
As CIA Outfit?
Liberty Forum.org
11-23-4

Regarding http://www.jihadunspun.com --

This professionally managed website with eyecatching design and graphics and daily news features, video store and reporters emerged on the net sometime after Sept. 11th 2001.

What really struck me as odd was all the professional glitz of the website as well as its deliberate attempt to look Arabic (Notice the Koranic translations with curved font!)

From what I know of pro-jihad websites, they operate on a shoestring budget, provided they happen to find volunteers and donors who are willing to risk being deported and detained. They get kicked off from ISP to ISP and use cheap frontpage templates. Real Jihad websites try to imitate the West in web design rather than coming up with colors that seem to resemble the robes of a sand dune shape and Arabic shaped English text.One such authentic website was the one run by a well known Saudi dissident, Azzam.com. More about Azzam later.

Now getting back to Jihadunspun (JUS), the Related links tab first displayed the address of some muslim name in British Columbia Canada. So right in our backyard we have a semi Al Qaeda operation which unlike Azzam doesnt even lose its ISP, let alone get shut down.

Next, take a closer look at the website.....This is a very sophisticated operation and I am sure that even some of its own muslim reporters have no clue what is going on. But again, as the graphic on its homepage portrays Bush on one side and Binladen on the other. For an agitated muslim as well as reactionary goyim, the NWO reinforces the assertion it made on Sept.11th by bringing down those towers by "heated jet fuel ": The war of civilisations is on : Binladen after grandly bringing down the towers now seeks to further his Jihad on the West.

Secondly, unlike other genuine Jihad sites, there is not even a whisper of conspiracy regarding Sept 11th on this site. In other words,
1. The goyim must continue hunting "Al Qaeda"
2 The muslims should resume the "jihad" on the West inaugurated by Binladen.
OR IN OTHER WORDS, NWO/ JEWISH CABBAL/ ILLUMINATI /SATAN/ CIA AGENDA! Notice how the tab "The players" has only Bush Binladen and Co. whereas the Real players are simply missing.

There is also another purpose. Suppose Bush is having a real unpopular moment. Jihadunspun could furnish another lab doctored video/audio recording of Binladen urging war on Americans. This will serve to distract and at the same time emphasise the need for a war. With its Al Qaeda credentials, few would doubt the source.

Here is what I found in a Chicago Tribune article

Quote:

Some Web watchers, including Katz, believe the U.S. government may be using the Internet jihad to spy. They speculate that Jihad Unspun, an English-language site that appears to promote terror, may be a CIA creation, designed to find out who visits or orders videos glorifying bin Laden.

A lengthy notice on Jihad Unspun denies the allegations, saying the site is "a labor of love for Allah." Bruce Kennedy, identified on the site as editor in chief, said by e-mail that Jihad Unspun's operators "are not doing any interviews with American press at this time." Boy thats a lot of $$$.....if JUS is a genuine Jihad Site, then the Saudis must be pouring in money like sand.

Now here's what happened lately.....Genuine Jihad site Azzam.com smelt something wrong in wannabe jihadi site JUS and sounded the alarm by publishing articles titled "JUS is CIA". Since Azzam is widely read, it had to be closed, or it would be the end of an expensive well orchestrated operation. For reasons unknown, Azzam.com was instantly shut down and has been offline since then.

In order to counter the damage done by Azzam.com, JUS published some damage control, which can be best described as the work of some other "Bruce Kennedy" whose experience with Islamic Arabs is Lawrence of Arabia movies and Tintin comics. Dont be impressed by the dropping of Koranic verses and Arabic lines. You can get Pakistani muslims@ 5$ an hour to do that. I am posting the whole article just in case JUS deletes it from its website noticing clumsiness.

AND I INVITE ALL OF YOU TO TAKE A GOOD READ AND JUDGE FOR YOURSELF WHETHER "BRUCE KENNEDY" WILL PLAY A GOOD ARABIAN FEMME ONLINE OR SHOULD BE REPOSTED BACK TO THE CIA RADIO STATION IN ALASKA.

Shaw Communications: CIA Front Operation

Jihad Unspun Exposed
As CIA Outfit?
Liberty Forum.org

Regarding http://www.jihadunspun.com --

This professionally managed website with eyecatching design and graphics and daily news features, video store and reporters emerged on the net sometime after Sept. 11th 2001.

What really struck me as odd was all the professional glitz of the website as well as its deliberate attempt to look Arabic (Notice the Koranic translations with curved font!)

From what I know of pro-jihad websites, they operate on a shoestring budget, provided they happen to find volunteers and donors who are willing to risk being deported and detained. They get kicked off from ISP to ISP and use cheap frontpage templates. Real Jihad websites try to imitate the West in web design rather than coming up with colors that seem to resemble the robes of a sand dune shape and Arabic shaped English text.One such authentic website was the one run by a well known Saudi dissident, Azzam.com. More about Azzam later.

Now getting back to Jihadunspun (JUS), the Related links tab first displayed the address of some muslim name in British Columbia Canada. So right in our backyard we have a semi Al Qaeda operation which unlike Azzam doesnt even lose its ISP, let alone get shut down.

Next, take a closer look at the website.....This is a very sophisticated operation and I am sure that even some of its own muslim reporters have no clue what is going on. But again, as the graphic on its homepage portrays Bush on one side and Binladen on the other. For an agitated muslim as well as reactionary goyim, the NWO reinforces the assertion it made on Sept.11th by bringing down those towers by "heated jet fuel ": The war of civilisations is on : Binladen after grandly bringing down the towers now seeks to further his Jihad on the West.

Secondly, unlike other genuine Jihad sites, there is not even a whisper of conspiracy regarding Sept 11th on this site. In other words,
1. The goyim must continue hunting "Al Qaeda"
2 The muslims should resume the "jihad" on the West inaugurated by Binladen.
OR IN OTHER WORDS, NWO/ JEWISH CABBAL/ ILLUMINATI /SATAN/ CIA AGENDA! Notice how the tab "The players" has only Bush Binladen and Co. whereas the Real players are simply missing.

There is also another purpose. Suppose Bush is having a real unpopular moment. Jihadunspun could furnish another lab doctored video/audio recording of Binladen urging war on Americans. This will serve to distract and at the same time emphasise the need for a war. With its Al Qaeda credentials, few would doubt the source.

Here is what I found in a Chicago Tribune article

Quote:

Some Web watchers, including Katz, believe the U.S. government may be using the Internet jihad to spy. They speculate that Jihad Unspun, an English-language site that appears to promote terror, may be a CIA creation, designed to find out who visits or orders videos glorifying bin Laden.

A lengthy notice on Jihad Unspun denies the allegations, saying the site is "a labor of love for Allah." Bruce Kennedy, identified on the site as editor in chief, said by e-mail that Jihad Unspun's operators "are not doing any interviews with American press at this time." A CIA spokesman denied the site has any connection to the agency.

Labour of love for Allah? Doesnt that sound a bit too wannabe muslim? Trust me, the muslims I know have Allah an established factor. They dont take in this "pleasing the emperor style which more depicts stereotypes of muslims.Why do I get the same feeling when I bumped into a male posing as 16/f/nyc?

Another tidbit.....a buddy of mine started liking JUS and decided to get involved on its fancy forums. Whatever got into him, the first article he posted was about How the CIA backed Saddam. Next day, he discovers he is a non-entity! no invalid pw or email notification....it simply says he is not a member ! If you guys have time, try it out. Post some hard stuff on the CIA and tell me here how long you lasted.

Here is some interesting stuff I found in the contact information under domain name lookup.

Interesting.....who is Bruce Kennedy? That would be a name I would like to keep as a handle. Well, as i have said before, some time back there was a muslim name and address in British Columbia (Canada). It seems the muslim paypal screwed it up or something so now they got this all white American convert to try explain where all the expertise and $$$ are coming from.

The website is hosted by two servers, one is a rather unheard of server in NWO backyard Canada

Shaw Communications: CIA Front Operation

Jihad Unspun Exposed
As CIA Outfit?
Liberty Forum.org
11-23-4

Regarding http://www.jihadunspun.com --

This professionally managed website with eyecatching design and graphics and daily news features, video store and reporters emerged on the net sometime after Sept. 11th 2001.

What really struck me as odd was all the professional glitz of the website as well as its deliberate attempt to look Arabic (Notice the Koranic translations with curved font!)

From what I know of pro-jihad websites, they operate on a shoestring budget, provided they happen to find volunteers and donors who are willing to risk being deported and detained. They get kicked off from ISP to ISP and use cheap frontpage templates. Real Jihad websites try to imitate the West in web design rather than coming up with colors that seem to resemble the robes of a sand dune shape and Arabic shaped English text.One such authentic website was the one run by a well known Saudi dissident, Azzam.com. More about Azzam later.

Now getting back to Jihadunspun (JUS), the Related links tab first displayed the address of some muslim name in British Columbia Canada. So right in our backyard we have a semi Al Qaeda operation which unlike Azzam doesnt even lose its ISP, let alone get shut down.

Next, take a closer look at the website.....This is a very sophisticated operation and I am sure that even some of its own muslim reporters have no clue what is going on. But again, as the graphic on its homepage portrays Bush on one side and Binladen on the other. For an agitated muslim as well as reactionary goyim, the NWO reinforces the assertion it made on Sept.11th by bringing down those towers by "heated jet fuel ": The war of civilisations is on : Binladen after grandly bringing down the towers now seeks to further his Jihad on the West.

Secondly, unlike other genuine Jihad sites, there is not even a whisper of conspiracy regarding Sept 11th on this site. In other words,
1. The goyim must continue hunting "Al Qaeda"
2 The muslims should resume the "jihad" on the West inaugurated by Binladen.
OR IN OTHER WORDS, NWO/ JEWISH CABBAL/ ILLUMINATI /SATAN/ CIA AGENDA! Notice how the tab "The players" has only Bush Binladen and Co. whereas the Real players are simply missing.

There is also another purpose. Suppose Bush is having a real unpopular moment. Jihadunspun could furnish another lab doctored video/audio recording of Binladen urging war on Americans. This will serve to distract and at the same time emphasise the need for a war. With its Al Qaeda credentials, few would doubt the source.

Here is what I found in a Chicago Tribune article

Quote:

Some Web watchers, including Katz, believe the U.S. government may be using the Internet jihad to spy. They speculate that Jihad Unspun, an English-language site that appears to promote terror, may be a CIA creation, designed to find out who visits or orders videos glorifying bin Laden.

A lengthy notice on Jihad Unspun denies the allegations, saying the site is "a labor of love for Allah." Bruce Kennedy, identified on the site as editor in chief, said by e-mail that Jihad Unspun's operators "are not doing any interviews with American press at this time." A CIA spokesman denied the site has any connection to the agency.

Labour of love for Allah? Doesnt that sound a bit too wannabe muslim? Trust me, the muslims I know have Allah an established factor. They dont take in this "pleasing the emperor style which more depicts stereotypes of muslims.Why do I get the same feeling when I bumped into a male posing as 16/f/nyc?

Another tidbit.....a buddy of mine started liking JUS and decided to get involved on its fancy forums. Whatever got into him, the first article he posted was about How the CIA backed Saddam. Next day, he discovers he is a non-entity! no invalid pw or email notification....it simply says he is not a member ! If you guys have time, try it out. Post some hard stuff on the CIA and tell me here how long you lasted.

Here is some interesting stuff I found in the contact information under domain name lookup.
Jihad Unspun

Interesting.....who is Bruce Kennedy? That would be a name I would like to keep as a handle. Well, as i have said before, some time back there was a muslim name and address in British Columbia (Canada). It seems the muslim paypal screwed it up or something so now they got this all white American convert to try explain where all the expertise and $$$ are coming from.

The website is hosted by two servers, one is a rather unheard of server in NWO backyard Canada
209.139.224.132
GT Group Telecom Services Corp. -Pacific

Apart from jihadunspun.com, These creatures even have $$$ to keep jihadunspun.net registered in their name on another Canadian server

Now do you suppose These Canadian Companies would be interested in hosting pro-Al Qaeda websites?

In addition, both servers are hosted through YOURGALAXY.COM which seems to be some newfangled business AGAIN in British Columbia Canadafor providing streaming video support for JUS Binladen videos! Here is what I found about YOURGALAXY.COM

Boy thats a lot of $$$.....if JUS is a genuine Jihad Site, then the Saudis must be pouring in money like sand.

Now here's what happened lately.....Genuine Jihad site Azzam.com smelt something wrong in wannabe jihadi site JUS and sounded the alarm by publishing articles titled "JUS is CIA". Since Azzam is widely read, it had to be closed, or it would be the end of an expensive well orchestrated operation. For reasons unknown, Azzam.com was instantly shut down and has been offline since then.

In order to counter the damage done by Azzam.com, JUS published some damage control, which can be best described as the work of some other "Bruce Kennedy" whose experience with Islamic Arabs is Lawrence of Arabia movies and Tintin comics. Dont be impressed by the dropping of Koranic verses and Arabic lines. You can get Pakistani muslims@ 5$ an hour to do that. I am posting the whole article just in case JUS deletes it from its website noticing clumsiness.

AND I INVITE ALL OF YOU TO TAKE A GOOD READ AND JUDGE FOR YOURSELF WHETHER "BRUCE KENNEDY" WILL PLAY A GOOD ARABIAN FEMME ONLINE OR SHOULD BE REPOSTED BACK TO THE CIA RADIO STATION IN ALASKA.

The wise observer will note that your head has been shoved up your arse and you are now attempting to describe the world as seen through the eye of your

Shaw Communications: CIA Front Operation

Jihad Unspun Exposed
As CIA Outfit?
Liberty Forum.org
11-23-4

Regarding http://www.jihadunspun.com --

This professionally managed website with eyecatching design and graphics and daily news features, video store and reporters emerged on the net sometime after Sept. 11th 2001.

What really struck me as odd was all the professional glitz of the website as well as its deliberate attempt to look Arabic (Notice the Koranic translations with curved font!)

From what I know of pro-jihad websites, they operate on a shoestring budget, provided they happen to find volunteers and donors who are willing to risk being deported and detained. They get kicked off from ISP to ISP and use cheap frontpage templates. Real Jihad websites try to imitate the West in web design rather than coming up with colors that seem to resemble the robes of a sand dune shape and Arabic shaped English text.One such authentic website was the one run by a well known Saudi dissident, Azzam.com. More about Azzam later.

Now getting back to Jihadunspun (JUS), the Related links tab first displayed the address of some muslim name in British Columbia Canada. So right in our backyard we have a semi Al Qaeda operation which unlike Azzam doesnt even lose its ISP, let alone get shut down.

Next, take a closer look at the website.....This is a very sophisticated operation and I am sure that even some of its own muslim reporters have no clue what is going on. But again, as the graphic on its homepage portrays Bush on one side and Binladen on the other. For an agitated muslim as well as reactionary goyim, the NWO reinforces the assertion it made on Sept.11th by bringing down those towers by "heated jet fuel ": The war of civilisations is on : Binladen after grandly bringing down the towers now seeks to further his Jihad on the West.

Secondly, unlike other genuine Jihad sites, there is not even a whisper of conspiracy regarding Sept 11th on this site. In other words,
1. The goyim must continue hunting "Al Qaeda"
2 The muslims should resume the "jihad" on the West inaugurated by Binladen.
OR IN OTHER WORDS, NWO/ JEWISH CABBAL/ ILLUMINATI /SATAN/ CIA AGENDA! Notice how the tab "The players" has only Bush Binladen and Co. whereas the Real players are simply missing.

There is also another purpose. Suppose Bush is having a real unpopular moment. Jihadunspun could furnish another lab doctored video/audio recording of Binladen urging war on Americans. This will serve to distract and at the same time emphasise the need for a war. With its Al Qaeda credentials, few would doubt the source.

Here is what I found in a Chicago Tribune article

Quote:

Some Web watchers, including Katz, believe the U.S. government may be using the Internet jihad to spy. They speculate that Jihad Unspun, an English-language site that appears to promote terror, may be a CIA creation, designed to find out who visits or orders videos glorifying bin Laden.

A lengthy notice on Jihad Unspun denies the allegations, saying the site is "a labor of love for Allah." Bruce Kennedy, identified on the site as editor in chief, said by e-mail that Jihad Unspun's operators "are not doing any interviews with American press at this time." A CIA spokesman denied the site has any connection to the agency.

Labour of love for Allah? Doesnt that sound a bit too wannabe muslim? Trust me, the muslims I know have Allah an established factor. They dont take in this "pleasing the emperor style which more depicts stereotypes of muslims.Why do I get the same feeling when I bumped into a male posing as 16/f/nyc?

Another tidbit.....a buddy of mine started liking JUS and decided to get involved on its fancy forums. Whatever got into him, the first article he posted was about How the CIA backed Saddam. Next day, he discovers he is a non-entity! no invalid pw or email notification....it simply says he is not a member ! If you guys have time, try it out. Post some hard stuff on the CIA and tell me here how long you lasted.

Here is some interesting stuff I found in the contact information under domain name lookup.
Jihad Unspun

Interesting.....who is Bruce Kennedy? That would be a name I would like to keep as a handle. Well, as i have said before, some time back there was a muslim name and address in British Columbia (Canada). It seems the muslim paypal screwed it up or something so now they got this all white American convert to try explain where all the expertise and $$$ are coming from.

The website is hosted by two servers, one is a rather unheard of server in NWO backyard Canada
209.139.224.132
GT Group Telecom Services Corp. -Pacific

Apart from jihadunspun.com, These creatures even have $$$ to keep jihadunspun.net registered in their name on another Canadian server

Now do you suppose These Canadian Companies would be interested in hosting pro-Al Qaeda websites?

In addition, both servers are hosted through YOURGALAXY.COM which seems to be some newfangled business AGAIN in British Columbia Canadafor providing streaming video support for JUS Binladen videos! Here is what I found about YOURGALAXY.COM

Boy thats a lot of $$$.....if JUS is a genuine Jihad Site, then the Saudis must be pouring in money like sand.

Now here's what happened lately.....Genuine Jihad site Azzam.com smelt something wrong in wannabe jihadi site JUS and sounded the alarm by publishing articles titled "JUS is CIA". Since Azzam is widely read, it had to be closed, or it would be the end of an expensive well orchestrated operation. For reasons unknown, Azzam.com was instantly shut down and has been offline since then.

In order to counter the damage done by Azzam.com, JUS published some damage control, which can be best described as the work of some other "Bruce Kennedy" whose experience with Islamic Arabs is Lawrence of Arabia movies and Tintin comics. Dont be impressed by the dropping of Koranic verses and Arabic lines. You can get Pakistani muslims@ 5$ an hour to do that. I am posting the whole article just in case JUS deletes it from its website noticing clumsiness.

AND I INVITE ALL OF YOU TO TAKE A GOOD READ AND JUDGE FOR YOURSELF WHETHER "BRUCE KENNEDY" WILL PLAY A GOOD ARABIAN FEMME ONLINE OR SHOULD BE REPOSTED BACK TO THE CIA RADIO STATION IN ALASKA.

Interesting.....who is Bruce Kennedy? That would be a name I would like to keep as a handle. Well, as i have said before, some time back there was a muslim name and address in British Columbia (Canada). It seems the muslim paypal screwed it up or something so now they got this all white American convert to try explain where all the expertise and $$$ are coming from.

The website is hosted by two servers, one is a rather unheard of server in NWO backyard Canada

Boy thats a lot of $$$.....if JUS is a genuine Jihad Site, then the Saudis must be pouring in money like sand.

Now here's what happened lately.....Genuine Jihad site Azzam.com smelt something wrong in wannabe jihadi site JUS and sounded the alarm by publishing articles titled "JUS is CIA". Since Azzam is widely read, it had to be closed, or it would be the end of an expensive well orchestrated operation. For reasons unknown, Azzam.com was instantly shut down and has been offline since then.

In order to counter the damage done by Azzam.com, JUS published some damage control, which can be best described as the work of some other "Bruce Kennedy" whose experience with Islamic Arabs is Lawrence of Arabia movies and Tintin comics. Dont be impressed by the dropping of Koranic verses and Arabic lines. You can get Pakistani muslims@ 5$ an hour to do that. I am posting the whole article just in case JUS deletes it from its website noticing clumsiness.

AND I INVITE ALL OF YOU TO TAKE A GOOD READ AND JUDGE FOR YOURSELF WHETHER "BRUCE KENNEDY" WILL PLAY A GOOD ARABIAN FEMME ONLINE OR SHOULD BE REPOSTED BACK TO THE CIA RADIO STATION IN ALASKA.

Shaw Communications: CIA Front Operation

Jihad Unspun Exposed
As CIA Outfit?
Liberty Forum.org
11-23-4

Regarding http://www.jihadunspun.com --

This professionally managed website with eyecatching design and graphics and daily news features, video store and reporters emerged on the net sometime after Sept. 11th 2001.

What really struck me as odd was all the professional glitz of the website
as well as its deliberate attempt to look Arabic (Notice the Koranic translations with curved font!)

provided they happen to find volunteers and donors who are willing to risk being deported and detained. They get kicked off from ISP to ISP and use cheap frontpage templates. Real Jihad websites try to imitate the West in web design rather than coming up with colors that seem to resemble the robes of a sand dune shape and Arabic shaped English text.One such authentic website was the one run by a well known Saudi dissident, Azzam.com. More about Azzam later.

Now getting back to Jihadunspun (JUS), the Related links tab first displayed the address of some muslim name in British Columbia Canada. So right in our backyard we have a semi Al Qaeda operation which unlike Azzam doesnt even lose its ISP, let alone get shut down.

Next, take a closer look at the website.....This is a very sophisticated operation and I am sure that even some of its own muslim reporters have no clue what is going on. But again, as the graphic on its homepage portrays Bush on one side and Binladen on the other. For an agitated muslim as well as reactionary goyim, the NWO reinforces the assertion it made on Sept.11th by bringing down those towers by "heated jet fuel ": The war of civilisations is on : Binladen after grandly bringing down the towers now seeks to further his Jihad on the West.

Secondly, unlike other genuine Jihad sites, there is not even a whisper of conspiracy regarding Sept 11th on this site. In other words,
1. The goyim must continue hunting "Al Qaeda"
2 The muslims should resume the "jihad" on the West inaugurated by Binladen.
OR IN OTHER WORDS, NWO/ JEWISH CABBAL/ ILLUMINATI /SATAN/ CIA AGENDA! Notice how the tab "The players" has only Bush Binladen and Co. whereas the Real players are simply missing.

There is also another purpose. Suppose Bush is having a real unpopular moment. Jihadunspun could furnish another lab doctored video/audio recording of Binladen urging war on Americans. This will serve to distract and at the same time emphasise the need for a war. With its Al Qaeda credentials, few would doubt the source.

Here is what I found in a Chicago Tribune article

Quote:

Some Web watchers, including Katz, believe the U.S. government may be using the Internet jihad to spy. They speculate that Jihad Unspun, an English-language site that appears to promote terror, may be a CIA creation, designed to find out who visits or orders videos glorifying bin Laden.

A lengthy notice on Jihad Unspun denies the allegations, saying the site is "a labor of love for Allah." Bruce Kennedy, identified on the site as editor in chief, said by e-mail that Jihad Unspun's operators "are not doing any interviews with American press at this time." A CIA spokesman denied the site has any connection to the agency.

Labour of love for Allah? Doesnt that sound a bit too wannabe muslim? Trust me, the muslims I know have Allah an established factor. They dont take in this "pleasing the emperor style which more depicts stereotypes of muslims.Why do I get the same feeling when I bumped into a male posing as 16/f/nyc?

Another tidbit.....a buddy of mine started liking JUS and decided to get involved on its fancy forums. Whatever got into him, the first article he posted was about How the CIA backed Saddam. Next day, he discovers he is a non-entity! no invalid pw or email notification....it simply says he is not a member ! If you guys have time, try it out. Post some hard stuff on the CIA and tell me here how long you lasted.

Here is some interesting stuff I found in the contact information under domain name lookup.

Shaw Communications: CIA Front Operation

Jihad Unspun Exposed
As CIA Outfit?
Liberty Forum.org
11-23-4

Regarding http://www.jihadunspun.com --

This professionally managed website with eyecatching design and graphics and daily news features, video store and reporters emerged on the net sometime
after Sept. 11th 2001.

What really struck me as odd was all the professional glitz of the website
as well as its deliberate attempt to look Arabic (Notice the Koranic translations with curved font!)

From what I know of pro-jihad websites, they operate on a shoestring budget, provided they happen to find volunteers and donors who are willing to risk being deported and detained. They get kicked off from ISP to ISP and use cheap frontpage templates. Real Jihad websites try to imitate the West in web design rather than coming up with colors that seem to resemble the robes
of a sand dune shape and Arabic shaped English text.One such authentic website was the one run by a well known Saudi dissident, Azzam.com. More about Azzam later.

Now getting back to Jihadunspun (JUS), the Related links tab first displayed the address of some muslim name in British Columbia Canada. So right in our backyard we have a semi Al Qaeda operation which unlike Azzam doesnt even lose its ISP, let alone get shut down.

Next, take a closer look at the website.....This is a very sophisticated operation and I am sure that even some of its own muslim reporters have no clue what is going on. But again, as the graphic on its homepage portrays Bush on one side and Binladen on the other. For an agitated muslim as well as reactionary goyim, the NWO reinforces the assertion it made on Sept.11th by bringing down those towers by "heated jet fuel ": The war of civilisations is on : Binladen after grandly bringing down the towers now seeks to further his Jihad on the West.

Secondly, unlike other genuine Jihad sites, there is not even a whisper of conspiracy regarding Sept 11th on this site. In other words,
1. The goyim must continue hunting "Al Qaeda"
2 The muslims should resume the "jihad" on the West inaugurated by Binladen.
OR IN OTHER WORDS, NWO/ JEWISH CABBAL/ ILLUMINATI /SATAN/ CIA AGENDA! Notice how the tab "The players" has only Bush Binladen and Co. whereas the Real players are simply missing.

There is also another purpose. Suppose Bush is having a real unpopular moment. Jihadunspun could furnish another lab doctored video/audio recording of Binladen urging war on Americans. This will serve to distract and at the same time emphasise the need for a war. With its Al Qaeda credentials, few would doubt the source.

Here is what I found in a Chicago Tribune article

Quote:

Some Web watchers, including Katz, believe the U.S. government may be using the Internet jihad to spy. They speculate that Jihad Unspun, an English-language site that appears to promote terror, may be a CIA creation, designed to find out who visits or orders videos glorifying bin Laden.

A lengthy notice on Jihad Unspun denies the allegations, saying the site is "a labor of love for Allah." Bruce Kennedy, identified on the site as editor in chief, said by e-mail that Jihad Unspun's operators "are not doing any interviews with American press at this time." A CIA spokesman denied the site has any connection to the agency.

Labour of love for Allah? Doesnt that sound a bit too wannabe muslim? Trust me, the muslims I know have Allah an established factor. They dont take in this "pleasing the emperor style which more depicts stereotypes of muslims.Why do I get the same feeling when I bumped into a male posing as 16/f/nyc?

Another tidbit.....a buddy of mine started liking JUS and decided to get involved on its fancy forums. Whatever got into him, the first article he posted was about How the CIA backed Saddam. Next day, he discovers he is a non-entity! no invalid pw or email notification....it simply says he is not a member ! If you guys have time, try it out. Post some hard stuff on the CIA and tell me here how long you lasted.

Here is some interesting stuff I found in the contact information under domain name lookup.

Interesting.....who is Bruce Kennedy? That would be a name I would like to keep as a handle. Well, as i have said before, some time back there was a muslim name and address in British Columbia (Canada). It seems the muslim paypal screwed it up or something so now they got this all white American convert to try explain where all the expertise and $$$ are coming from.

Boy thats a lot of $$$.....if JUS is a genuine Jihad Site, then the Saudis must be pouring in money like sand.

Now here's what happened lately.....Genuine Jihad site Azzam.com smelt something wrong in wannabe jihadi site JUS and sounded the alarm by publishing articles titled "JUS is CIA". Since Azzam is widely read, it had to be closed, or it would be the end of an expensive well orchestrated operation. For reasons unknown, Azzam.com was instantly shut down and has been offline since then.

In order to counter the damage done by Azzam.com, JUS published some damage control, which can be best described as the work of some other "Bruce Kennedy" whose experience with Islamic Arabs is Lawrence of Arabia movies and Tintin comics. Dont be impressed by the dropping of Koranic verses and Arabic lines. You can get Pakistani muslims@ 5$ an hour to do that. I am posting the whole article just in case JUS deletes it from its website noticing clumsiness.

Shaw Communications: CIA Front Operation

Jihad Unspun Exposed
As CIA Outfit?
Liberty Forum.org
11-23-4

Regarding http://www.jihadunspun.com --

This professionally managed website with eyecatching design and graphics and daily news features, video store and reporters emerged on the net sometime after Sept. 11th 2001.

What really struck me as odd was all the professional glitz of the website as well as its deliberate attempt to look Arabic (Notice the Koranic translations with curved font!)

From what I know of pro-jihad websites, they operate on a shoestring budget, provided they happen to find volunteers and donors who are willing to risk being deported and detained. They get kicked off from ISP to ISP and use cheap frontpage templates. Real Jihad websites try to imitate the West in web design rather than coming up with colors that seem to resemble the robes of a sand dune shape and Arabic shaped English text.One such authentic website was the one run by a well known Saudi dissident, Azzam.com. More about Azzam later.

Now getting back to Jihadunspun (JUS), the Related links tab first displayed the address of some muslim name in British Columbia Canada. So right in our backyard we have a semi Al Qaeda operation which unlike Azzam doesnt even lose its ISP, let alone get shut down.

Next, take a closer look at the website.....This is a very sophisticated operation and I am sure that even some of its own muslim reporters have no clue what is going on. But again, as the graphic on its homepage portrays Bush on one side and Binladen on the other. For an agitated muslim as well as reactionary goyim, the NWO reinforces the assertion it made on Sept.11th by bringing down those towers by "heated jet fuel ": The war of civilisations is on : Binladen after grandly bringing down the towers now seeks to further his Jihad on the West.

Secondly, unlike other genuine Jihad sites, there is not even a whisper of conspiracy regarding Sept 11th on this site. In other words,
1. The goyim must continue hunting "Al Qaeda"
2 The muslims should resume the "jihad" on the West inaugurated by Binladen.
OR IN OTHER WORDS, NWO/ JEWISH CABBAL/ ILLUMINATI /SATAN/ CIA AGENDA! Notice how the tab "The players" has only Bush Binladen and Co. whereas the Real players are simply missing.

There is also another purpose. Suppose Bush is having a real unpopular moment. Jihadunspun could furnish another lab doctored video/audio recording of Binladen urging war on Americans. This will serve to distract and at the same time emphasise the need for a war. With its Al Qaeda credentials, few would doubt the source.

Here is what I found in a Chicago Tribune article

Quote:

Some Web watchers, including Katz, believe the U.S. government may be using the Internet jihad to spy. They speculate that Jihad Unspun, an English-language site that appears to promote terror, may be a CIA creation, designed to find out who visits or orders videos glorifying bin Laden.

A lengthy notice on Jihad Unspun denies the allegations, saying the site is "a labor of love for Allah." Bruce Kennedy, identified on the site as editor in chief, said by e-mail that Jihad Unspun's operators "are not doing any interviews with American press at this time." A CIA spokesman denied the site has any connection to the agency.

Labour of love for Allah? Doesnt that sound a bit too wannabe muslim? Trust me, the muslims I know have Allah an established factor. They dont take in this "pleasing the emperor style which more depicts stereotypes of muslims.Why do I get the same feeling when I bumped into a male posing as 16/f/nyc?

Another tidbit.....a buddy of mine started liking JUS and decided to get involved on its fancy forums. Whatever got into him, the first article he posted was about How the CIA backed Saddam. Next day, he discovers he is a non-entity! no invalid pw or email notification....it simply says he is not a member ! If you guys have time, try it out. Post some hard stuff on the CIA and tell me here how long you lasted.

Here is some interesting stuff I found in the contact information under domain name lookup.
Jihad Unspun

Interesting.....who is Bruce Kennedy? That would be a name I would like to keep as a handle. Well, as i have said before, some time back there was a muslim name and address in British Columbia (Canada). It seems the muslim paypal screwed it up or something so now they got this all white American convert to try explain where all the expertise and $$$ are coming from.

The website is hosted by two servers, one is a rather unheard of server in NWO backyard Canada

Now do you suppose These Canadian Companies would be interested in hosting pro-Al Qaeda websites?

In addition, both servers are hosted through YOURGALAXY.COM which seems to be some newfangled business AGAIN in British Columbia Canadafor providing streaming video support for JUS Binladen videos! Here is what I found about YOURGALAXY.COM

Boy thats a lot of $$$.....if JUS is a genuine Jihad Site, then the Saudis must be pouring in money like sand.

Now here's what happened lately.....Genuine Jihad site Azzam.com smelt something wrong in wannabe jihadi site JUS and sounded the alarm by publishing articles titled "JUS is CIA". Since Azzam is widely read, it had to be closed, or it would be the end of an expensive well orchestrated operation. For reasons unknown, Azzam.com was instantly shut down and has been offline since then.

In order to counter the damage done by Azzam.com, JUS published some damage control, which can be best described as the work of some other "Bruce Kennedy" whose experience with Islamic Arabs is Lawrence of Arabia movies and Tintin comics. Dont be impressed by the dropping of Koranic verses and Arabic lines. You can get Pakistani muslims@ 5$ an hour to do that. I am posting the whole article just in case JUS deletes it from its website noticing clumsiness.

AND I INVITE ALL OF YOU TO TAKE A GOOD READ AND JUDGE FOR YOURSELF WHETHER "BRUCE KENNEDY" WILL PLAY A GOOD ARABIAN FEMME ONLINE OR SHOULD BE REPOSTED BACK TO THE CIA RADIO STATION IN ALASKA.

For an agitated muslim as well as reactionary goyim, the NWO reinforces the assertion it made on Sept.11th by bringing down those towers by "heated jet fuel ": The war of civilisations is on : Binladen after grandly bringing down the towers now seeks to further his Jihad on the West.

Secondly, unlike other genuine Jihad sites, there is not even a whisper of conspiracy regarding Sept 11th on this site. In other words,
1. The goyim must continue hunting "Al Qaeda"
2 The muslims should resume the "jihad" on the West inaugurated by Binladen.
OR IN OTHER WORDS, NWO/ JEWISH CABBAL/ ILLUMINATI /SATAN/ CIA AGENDA! Notice how the tab "The players" has only Bush Binladen and Co. whereas the Real players are simply missing.

There is also another purpose. Suppose Bush is having a real unpopular moment. Jihadunspun could furnish another lab doctored video/audio recording of Binladen urging war on Americans. This will serve to distract and at the same time emphasise the need for a war. With its Al Qaeda credentials, few would doubt the source.

Here is what I found in a Chicago Tribune article

Quote:

Some Web watchers, including Katz, believe the U.S. government may be using the Internet jihad to spy. They speculate that Jihad Unspun, an English-language site that appears to promote terror, may be a CIA creation, designed to find out who visits or orders videos glorifying bin Laden.

A lengthy notice on Jihad Unspun denies the allegations, saying the site is "a labor of love for Allah." Bruce Kennedy, identified on the site as editor in chief, said by e-mail that Jihad Unspun's operators "are not doing any interviews with American press at this time." A CIA spokesman denied the site has any connection to the agency.

Labour of love for Allah? Doesnt that sound a bit too wannabe muslim? Trust me, the muslims I know have Allah an established factor. They dont take in this "pleasing the emperor style which more depicts stereotypes of muslims.Why do I get the same feeling when I bumped into a male posing as 16/f/nyc?

Another tidbit.....a buddy of mine started liking JUS and decided to get involved on its fancy forums. Whatever got into him, the first article he posted was about How the CIA backed Saddam. Next day, he discovers he is a non-entity! no invalid pw or email notification....it simply says he is not a member ! If you guys have time, try it out. Post some hard stuff on the CIA and tell me here how long you lasted.

Here is some interesting stuff I found in the contact information under domain name lookup.
Jihad Unspun
Bruce Kennedy, #300 - 1497 Marine Drive

bkennedy@jihadunspun.net

Interesting.....who is Bruce Kennedy? That would be a name I would like to keep as a handle. Well, as i have said before, some time back there was a muslim name and address in British Columbia (Canada). It seems the muslim paypal screwed it up or something so now they got this all white American convert to try explain where all the expertise and $$$ are coming from.

The website is hosted by two servers, one is a rather unheard of server in NWO backyard Canada
209.139.224.132
GT Group Telecom Services Corp. -Pacific
20 Bay Street, Suite 700
Toronto ON M5J-2N8
Canada
+1-416-848-2000
hostmaster@gt.ca

Apart from jihadunspun.com, These creatures even have $$$ to keep jihadunspun.net registered in their name on another Canadian server
24.83.123.12
Shaw Communications Inc.
Suite 800

CalgaryAB

Canada
ipadmin@sjrb.ca

Now do you suppose These Canadian Companies would be interested in hosting pro-Al Qaeda websites?

In addition, both servers are hosted through YOURGALAXY.COM which seems to be some newfangled business AGAIN in British Columbia Canadafor providing streaming video support for JUS Binladen videos! Here is what I found about YOURGALAXY.COM E-Tech Computers Inc.

Canada
jason@gigasales.com

Boy thats a lot of $$$.....if JUS is a genuine Jihad Site, then the Saudis must be pouring in money like sand.

Now here's what happened lately.....Genuine Jihad site Azzam.com smelt something wrong in wannabe jihadi site JUS and sounded the alarm by publishing articles titled "JUS is CIA". Since Azzam is widely read, it had to be closed, or it would be the end of an expensive well orchestrated operation. For reasons unknown, Azzam.com was instantly shut down and has been offline since then.

In order to counter the damage done by Azzam.com, JUS published some damage control, which can be best described as the work of some other "Bruce Kennedy" whose experience with Islamic Arabs is Lawrence of Arabia movies and Tintin comics. Dont be impressed by the dropping of Koranic verses and Arabic lines. You can get Pakistani muslims@ 5$ an hour to do that. I am posting the whole article just in case JUS deletes it from its website noticing clumsiness.

AND I INVITE ALL OF YOU TO TAKE A GOOD READ AND JUDGE FOR YOURSELF WHETHER "BRUCE KENNEDY" WILL PLAY A GOOD ARABIAN FEMME ONLINE OR SHOULD BE REPOSTED BACK TO THE CIA RADIO STATION IN ALASKA.

Not quite, shunting spikes is more like the work of the noise blanker (NB).
The ANL cuts off the background hiss. This can simply be a diode, biased just below cut-off, which will only conduct when the level takes it above cut-off.

> Can anyone help shed any light on my quest to

Is this what you are looking for...

President Adams (PC346)... Diode D12.
Cobra 148GTL (not the DX)... Diode D23.
In the above circuits, the ANL appears to be ON unless disabled by the switch. This is done by placing a capacitor across the diode, allowing all audio to pass through.

Cobra 148GTL-DK MK1 (PC879)... Diode D35.
Cobra 148GTL-DX MK2 (PB-010)... Diode D28.
President Jackson (PB-042)... D22.
Presiden Grant (PC-999)... D28.
In the above circuits, the ANL is ON unless disabled by the switch. This is done by DC shorting the diode, allowing all audio to pass through.

Cybernet chassis PTBM059... Diode D26.
Cybernet chassis PTBM121... Diode D26.
Cybernet chassis PTBM125... Diode D39.
Cybernet chassis PTBM133... Diode D37.
Cybernet chassis PCMA001... Diode D39.
In the above circuits, the ANL is OFF unless enabled by the switch. When off, a pair of resistors allow signal to bypass the diode. To switch the ANL on, a capacitor shunts the bypass signal to ground... leaving only that passing through the diode.

Emperor Shogun... Diode D114.
A quick look at the circuit suggests that the diode is normally biased just below cut-off, with the ANL being switched off by biasing the diode fully on.

I also have a Maxon type diagram, which I believe is something like a Commtron CXX (AM / FM).
Standard type AM PCB (LC7120) with added FM board and crystal board for High and UK channels.

This looks like a built in ANL, D106, with nothing to switch it off.

IF you don't have any of the above diagrams and you want the ANL diagrams, I can Email them to you. Please don't use "reply to", as the Email address in my header is despammed and never used.
You can contact me through the contact form on the CB Website below.
